In the name of God amen, I Henry H. Turner, of the County of Haywood and State of Tennessee, being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:
First I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary S. Turner all my household and kitchen furniture, all my stock, farming utensils and crop of corn to use, or dispose of as she may think proper with the advice of her friend that may hereafter be selected by her. It is my will and desire that so much of my land be sold as will discharge the residue of my debts after the net proceeds of my cotton crop is applied to the same, the selection of the part to be sold to be discretionary with my wife, "ary. I also lend unto my wife Mary two hundred acres of land to be selected by her during her natural life, and after her death, I give and devise the said two hundred acres of land to my children to equally divided between them, and their assigns forever. I also will and desire that the balance of the land that may remain after selling such part as will pay my debts, and the two hundred allotted to my wife, Mary aforesaid, be equally divided between my children as they may severally arrive at age or my daughter Nancy marries, and be given to them their heirs and assigns forever. I also give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary and children all my negroes to be kept together by her, for her and their support and the education of the children during her widowhood or until my eldest son arrives at the age of twenty-one years, or my daughter Nancy marries and in the event she should marry before she arrives at full age, then an equal portion of my property then existing and not heretofore devised, to be allotted off to him or her and to his or her heirs and assigns forever. I also will & devise that in case my wife should marry, that an equal portion or child's part of my property not heretofore devised be allotted off to her, her heirs and assigns forever.

And also as the balance of my children may severally arrive at lawful age,

Page 440.

It is my will and desire that an equal portion with the first that may be allotted off or distributed, be allotted off and given to them and their heirs and assigns forever.

I also will and desire that should my wife not marry untill my youngest child receives his proportional part with the first, that should there be an overplus, then such overplus or part as may then remain to be equally divided between and the children, and to be given to them severally and to their heirs and assigns forever. And be it known that I wish it expressly understood that in the allotments or distributions, the first allotment to be made out of the property that may exist at the time of making it, and all the other distributions to be made of the same value as the first, and all shall receive as much as the first then the overplus if any to be distributed as above specified.

Lastly, I do hereby appoint my beloved wife Mary S. Turner, sole executrix to this my last will and testament, and I do hereby revoke and declare null and void all other wills by me made, and declare this to be my only last will and testament. In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this twentieth day of September A. D. 1839

The Monocutive will of Wilmoth Hankins

We, Elizabeth Austin and Margaret Lytle, do state that the monocutive will of Wilmoth Hankins was made by her on the 20th of August eighteen hundred & thirty-eight in our presence to which we were specially required to bear witness by the testatrix herself in the presence of each other, that it was made in her last sickness where she had been resident ten days at least, and the same is as follows, to wit: It was her will & desire that her effects should be disposed of after her decease in the following manner.

First, she desired that her negro man Joe be sold and an equal distribution of the money for which he sells, made between her four children, to wit: Harrison Hankins, Carter P. Hankins, Nancy Wells and Polley Austin.

Made out by us and signed this 31st of January 1839, that the said Testatrix died on the 4th day of October 1838 in the County of Haywood and State of Tennessee
