The last Will & Testament of Barbara Wardston.

In the name of God Amen. I Barbara Wardston of the State of Tennessee Haywood County, being in sound and perfect memory, Blessed be God, do make and publish this my last will and testament in the following manner, that is to say, I give and bequeath unto my son John W. Wardston Children lawfully begotten by his body, the following property to be equally divided between them when they become of age, to wit, my Negroes Hiannah, Rose and Charles and all their increase forever, also two feather beds and furniture, and all my stock of hogs, cattle and sheep, also all my Bonds and accounts which I may hold against any person at my death, except five dollars which I give and bequeath to my beloved son John W. Wardston to be raised out of my Estate. And I do ratify and confirm this, and no other to be my last will and testament. Also I do make and ordain my dear son John W. Wardston Executor to this my last will and testament. In Witness whereof I the said Barbara Wardston have to this my last will and testament, set my hand and fixed my seal this the ninth day of July 1834.

Signed sealed and delivered Signed Barbara Wardston (Seal)

in the presence of

John W. Wardston

A. C. Morley

The hand writing of Barbara Wardston was proved in open Court by the oath of Joseph W. Rauls
