In this settlement the Admin of J. A. Harvill holds the Note of M. M. Harvill for indebtedness to the estate with interest and for amounts paid on account of J. A. Harvill Security ship for him, he being insolvent at the time & still so, amounting to the sum of four hundred twenty seven & 50/100 dollars which has been charged to said Administrator with the understanding and agreement among the distributees that each would accept his or her proportionate share of said note in payment of so much due from said Admin, it being believed to be better for all to do that way than to have said note sold as insolvent said M. M. Harvill is a comparatively young man & of good habits & a practicing physician in the City of Nashville & the prospects are good for him to be able to pay the debt in full in a few years. As this settlement shows the Admin compromised the debt of R. M. Anderson & R. P. Davis believing it to be the best interest of all parties in interest on account of insolvency of debtors. All of which compromises & settlements appear to have been done in good faith & for the best interest of the estate of J. A. Harvill died.
