Since the death of J.J. Waters and before the termination of the period of trusteeship of Mr. Walker, and before he had disbursed all of the dividends accruing from the bank stock herein mentioned E.L. Warren to whom the 12 shares of said stock were bequeathed has died without having made any will and his widow Elroy Warren has qualified as Administratrix of his estate. J.J. Waters had in estate besides the bank stock herein mentioned which has been settled by Mr. Walker, as his executor, but the Corporation and inheritance taxes with which he is credited in the foregoing settlement had not been paid by him at that time because of controversy between the widow and the legates as to whom should pay them or a part of them. Since that time the question as to who should pay said taxes has been settled by submission to the Attorney General of the State and his opinion, and by agreement of the legates owning the share of stock mentioned in the settlement. Such taxes were paid by the trustee out of the dividends arising from such stock. By the terms of the will of J.J. Waters the bank stock mentioned in the caption of this settlement was to be turned over at the end of or termination of the trusteeship of the estate. Mr. Walker to the parties named in the caption hereof or to whoever might be entitled to them by law.

and as said period has terminated said Trustee has accordingly turned over said stock as follows:
 To Rebecca Hutchinson and her husband J B Hutchinson eight (8) shares, J W Waters Ten (10) shares, and to Mary Warren Administratrix of the estate of E L Warren dead Twelve (12) shares and has their receipts for the same bearing the same date of this settlement, which are on file in my office. To
