Personally appeared before me
W. Downey, clerk of the County Court of said county, D. Martin, and made oath that on the 2nd day of Dec. 1890, he qualified as the Executor of the will of J. P. Anderson, deceased, and that after he qualified that he found that there was no personal property to come into his hands, and that there were some debts against the estate, and that the widow and one of the said J. P. Anderson paid said indebtedness, and that some of the heirs sold their interests in the small farms, and that, now all of the heirs have sold their interests in the land, and that as such executor he submits this as his final report or settlement.
