vs.) In the Circuit Court for Humphrevs County, Tenn., Waverly Lumber Co.)

Came the defendant, and move the Court to dismiss the plaintiff's suit and dimiss Plaintiff's appeal for th following reasons.

I.

Because there is no costs bond in the case.

1

Because the plaintiff is a firm composed of T.A. Fack, and W.M. ^ack, (and possibly others) and the appeal bond is secured only by W.M. ^ack, a member of said firm, when it should have been security by some one not a mammber of the firm.

II

Because the appeal bond wasnever filed with nor approved by J.B. Bell, the Justice of the Peace, from These judgment the appeal was attempted to be made to the Circuit Court. but the appeal bond was sent directly to the clerk of this court and filed by him, consequently me appeal bond was ever presented to the said J.B. Bell within the time allowed by law for perfecting an appealed, nor at any other time.

McEwen Cash Garage or J.W. Robertson, Circuit Court Humphreys County, Tenn. December term 1927. L.H. Winstead and Came the defendant and moved the Court that thr appeal of plaintiff be dismissed. Because there is no security on the arreal bond the same being signed by McEwen Cash Garage and J.W. Roberson, the McEwen Cash Garage being merely the trade mean of J.W. Robertson the business being that of said J.W. Roberson and the suit being that of J.W. Roberson.

Hence dore dant move that said appeal be dismissed. And defendant move that sauit to dismissed , because no cost bord to secure the costs was made before the J.P. from whose judgment the appeal was taken and hence the suit should be dismissed.
