Effie May Sloan
vs.
Carmack Sloan

In the Circuit Court, at Waverly, Tennessee,

This cause came on to be heard, before J.D.G. Morton Judge of the Circuit Court, upon the petition of complainant, Effie May Sloan, and the pro confesso heretofore entered and the oral testimony of numerous witnesses examined in open court.

And it appearing to the court from the proof that the facts charged in the petition are true, that defendant abandoned complainant, turned her out of doors and neglected or refused to provide for her and child and that complainant did all she could to make their home relations happy and contented prior to their separation.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between complainant and defendant be absolutely and forever dissolved, and that complainant be vested with all the rights of an unmarried woman and that her maiden name, Effie May Parker, be restored to her, and that their infant child Norma May Sloan be committed to complainant.

It is further ordered adjudged and decreed by the court that complainant be given wages of fifteen dollars per month for support of herself and child Norma May, that defendant make first payment to the clerk of this court May the first 1929, and fifteen dollars on the first of each month thereafter, that this case be retained in court for the enforcement of this decree and for future orders of the court in regard to the child, that defendant pay the cost in this case for which execution may issue,

vs.)
J.A. Tomlinson, &) In the circuit Court of Humphreys county, Tennessee April Term 1920.
C.D. Askew)
This cause was heard upon the appeal of C.D. Askew from a judgment against him and J.A. Tomlinson, before a Justice of the Peace, before the court and jury to wit: W.H. McCaully, W.T. Patterson, S.E. Hurt, V. Dutton E.W. Swaney Walk Roberts, H.L. Rogers, R.L. Davis, W.S. Miller, Henry Johnson G.W. Durham, and C.H. Bramlett, and upon the completion of the hearing of the proof in the case, the defendant C.D. Askew moved the court for peremptory instructions to the jury for a direct verdict in favor of the defendant C.D. Askew, which motion the court allowed and directed the jury to report a verdict in favor of the defendant, C.D. Askew, which the jury did, and the court thereupon ordered that the case stand dismissed as to the defendant C.D. Askew, and that he recover of the plaintiff the cost of the case, for which execution may issue.

Thereupon the plaintiff asked leave of the court to withdraw the note sued on in the case, which motion the court was pleaded to and did allow and direct the clerk to take said note out of the files and deliver it to the plaintiff.

The court further orders that the files in this case be returned to the J.P. from whose judgment C.D. Askew also appealed to the end that he may proceed by execution to collect from the defendant J.A. Tomlinson.

vs.)
D.A. Burch &) In the circuit court of Humphreys County, Tennessee April term 1920
W.H. Crockett)

In this case came the parties and submitted the issues involved to the court without the intervention of a jury, when the court was of the opinion, after hearing all the evidence, that the plaintiff had made out his case by a preponderance of the evidence and therefore found the issues in favor of the plaintiff. It is therefore considered by the court; that plaintiff is entitled of the possession of the property involved consisting of about ten barrels of corn levied on by the defendant and replevied by plaintiff judgment is also given in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for all the cost of the cause, which will be paid out of the cash deposited put up by the defendant into the hands of the clerk of this court in lieu of an appeal bond, after the payment of said costs, the balance will be paid back to W.H. Crockett.

D.B. Stewart) vs.) In the circuit court of Humphreys county, Tennessee April Term 1920 vs.) In the Circuit Court, for Humphreys County, Tennessee, April term 1920 A.H. Little)

Came the parties when the issues and the proof in the case were heard by the court without the intervention of a jury, when the court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff, and that the defendant owes the plaintiff on the account sued on the sum of $204.14 and the court allowed interest on the same from January 1st, 1920, the sum of $20.20 making in all the sum of $224.34.

It is therefore considered by the court that the plaintiff recover of the defendant Two Hundred Thirty-Two and 34/100 Dollars and the costs of the suit for all of which execution will issue.

J.J. Sanders)
vs.) In the Circuit Court at Waverly, Tenn., Floyd A. Murphree)
V.Y. Rogers)

The plaintiff produced in Court a note purporting and proved to have been made by the defendants on the first day of Aug. 1920 for Four Hundred and fifteen dollars payable to the plaintiff three years after date thereof, also a power of attorney signed by which the defendants authorized Mason Sanders to confess judgment in any court of the State in favor of the plaintiff on said note at any time after it should become due and remain unpaid, and the defendants, by the said Mason Sanders, confesses that there is due and unpaid on said note to the plaintiff, including the interest due, the sum of Five Hundred Fifty Seven and 30/100 dollars and an attorneys fee due Jno. B. Cowman, amounting to the sum of Fifty Five and 70/100 dollars, making a total due of Six Hundred and thirteen Dollars and agrees that the Court may render judgment against them for same.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the plaintiff recover of defendants, Floyd A. Murphree and V.Y. Rogers, the aforesaid sum of six hundred and thirteen Dollars and the cost for which execution may issue.

J.J. Sanders)
vs.) In circuit Court at Waverly, Tenn.
Floyd A. Murphree)
V.Y. Rogers)

The plaintiff, produced in court a note purporting and proved to have been made by the defendants on the first day of Aug. 1920 for Four Hundred and fifteen Dollars payable to the plaintiff, two years after date thereof, also a power of attorney of the same date, by which the defendants authorized Mason Sanders to confess judgment in any court of the state in favor of the plaintiff on said note at any time after it should become due and remain unpaid, and the defendants by the said Mason Sanders, confesses that there is due and unpaid on note to the plaintiff, including interest due the sum of Five Hundred and fifty seven and 30/100 dollars and attorney fee due Jno. B. Cowman, amounting to the sum of Fifty Five Dollars and seventy cents, making a total due of Six Hundred and thirteen Dollars, and agrees that the Court may render judgment against them for same. It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, by the court that the plaintiff recover of the defendants, Floyd A. Murphree and V.Y. Rogers the aforesaid sum of Six Hundred and thirteen, Dollars and the cost for which execution may issue.

J.W. Dodd) vs.) In the Circuit Court, at Waverly, Tennessee, Tom Tubb)

Motion of counsel for the plaintiff having been made in the above styled cause and it appearing to the court that four certain witnesses were subpoenaed by the defendants who were not introduced on to witness stand by the said defendants and all of said four witnesses having claimed their attendance,

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the attendance fee and mileage of Tom Berryman, A.J. McCollum, J.C. Fuqua, G.W. Hew, be paid by the defendant the said four witnesses having been summoned by the defendant and not introduced to the witness stand by him. The costs of the attendance and mileage of the above said witnesses will be retaxed to the defendant Tom Tubb, and the plaintiff J.W. Dodd is to be relieved of said costs. O.K. Ottarson, O.K. In this cause the matters in controversy having been compromised and settled out of court, it is ordered by the court that the case be and the same is dismissed, and that the plaintiff J.J. Teas pay the costs for which let execution issue.

Luff Bowen Company) vs.) Circuit Court, Waverly Tenn.
B.J. Hopkins Admr. et al,)

On motion of plaintiff this case is dismissed at the cost of plaintiff. The court so orders adjudges and decrees.

Anno Lee Totiv)
vs.) Circuit court, Waverly, Tennessee, W.M. Totiv)

In this cause it duly appearing to the court that W.M. Totiv, defendant has been regularly brought into court by service of summons, and has made no defense, but is in default, it is ordered on motion of complainant that as to said defendant, the bill be taken for confessed and the cause set for hearing ex parte.

This cause came on further to be heard, and was heard by the court upon the whole record in the cause, the complainant's bill, the summons and the sheriff's return thereon, and the pro confesso heretofore taken, and entered against the defendant, and the oral testimony of witnesses examined in open court. And it satisfactorily appeared to the court from the proof that the facts charged in the bill are true, that the defendant had wilfully deserted the complainant without a reasonable cause for more than two whole years before the filing of the bill, as charged. It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed by the court, that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the complainant and defendant be absolutely and forever dissolved, and that the complainant be vested with all the rights of an unmarried person, and that her maiden name, Anna Lee Coleman, be restored to her.

State of Tennessee) vs.) FORFEITURE ON BOND
John Worley et al,)

Came the defendants in their own proper person, and Attorney General on behalf of the State when this case came on to be and was heard by the court upon the Scire Facias, return of the sheriff thereon, the answer of the defendants, and the motion of defendants to set aside the forfeiture entered against them, when the court after hearing and fully understanding considering the same is pleased to and does set said forfeiture entered at the December 1900 term of the court aside, but adjudges the cost of the forfeiture against defendants.

It is therefore considered by the court that the forfeiture taken and entered against defendants be and the same is set aside at defendants' cost, and that the State of Tennessee, recover of the defendants, all the cost accruing by reason of the taking and setting aside said forfeiture, for all of which execution will issue.

Circuit Court, Waverly, Tenn.,
Gilbert Davis, et al?

In this cause it appearing to the court that an agreement whereby the case is settled was reached by all the parties, which agreement is as follows:

AGREEMENT

WHEREAS: there are now pending the following condemnation suit in the Circuit Court at Waverly Tennessee on appeal from judgment of a jury of view in the following case, of G.C. Davis, Now in order to compromise and settle the said case, it is agreed by the parties hereto, that the Hon. J.D.G. Morton Judge of the circuit court may take the records, and especially the report of the jury of view in said and go upon the premises sought to be condemned, and so doing may if he prefers, confer with the owners of the land or those in control thereof and fix the damages the owner may be entitled to in this case, but in no event shall the damages so fixed be less than the amount already fixed by the jury of view, and the conclusion so reached by the said judge shall be final, and proper judgment, entered in the Circuit Court in said case. C.W. Turner County, Judge. G.C. Davis By, Morris & Simpson Attys And after due consideration by the court under the terms of said agreement, and after personal inspection of the land in connection with the owner thereof, and through examination of the record in this cause, by the said Judge of the said court, the court is of opinion and so adjudge and decrees that the defendant, Gilbert Davis, is due the sum of $766.00 as damages caused by the taking of the strip of land described in the petition in this cause by the State Highway Department for highway purposes.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court, that all the right, title and interest in the strip or parcel of land hereinafter described of the defendants Gilbert Davis, and the same is condemned and the title thereto divested out of the defendant Gilbert Davis, et al, and vested in the Department of highway, and public works, of the State of Tennessee, and for the use and benefit of the Department of highways and public works of the State of Tennessee, and for public purposes.

The land herein condemned for highway purposes is located in the 2nd. Civil District of Humphreys County, Tennessee, on Trace Creek, west of Waverly, and described as follows:

"A strip of land to be 3252 feet in length, containing 5.31 acres, more or less, and more particularly described as follows:

A. strip of land from station 650 / 00 to station 653 / 00 66 feet wide, extending 33 feet on each side of centre line

A strip of land from station 653 / 00 to station 665 / 00 80 feet wide, extending 40 feet on each side of centre line

A. strip of land from station 665 / 00 to station 683 / 20 66 feet wide, extending 33 feet on each side of centre line.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the defendant Gilbert Davis have and recover of the defendant Humphreys County, Tennessee, as damages for the land herein condemned and taken by the State of Tennessee for highway purposes, the sum of Seven Hundred sixty six ($766.00) Dollars with interest from the date of the judgment, together with all cost of this cause, for which execution or other proper remedy may issue.

Upon motion of counsel for the defendant, Gilbert Davis, a lien upon said judgment to the extent of $25.00 is declared by the court in favor of Morris & Simpson, Attys, for the said Davis, and the clerk of this court, or the judge of the county court, is instructed to pay said sum to the said attorneys, or either of them, upon execution of proper receipt. The court so orders, adjudges and decrees.

M. Voorheis
vs. } Humphreys County Tennessee
W.H. Crockett
Dorsey Crockett }

To the Hon. J.D. G. Morton, Judge. etc holding Circuit Court at Waverly, Humphreys County, Tennessee.

By virtue of the Authority contained in the ^{note} hereto attached, I, Mason Sanders, the within named attorney in fact for the makers W.H. Crockett, and Dorsey Crockett, do in open court hereby confess judgment, ^{against} the said makers W.H. Crockett, and Dorsey Crockett, and in favor of the true holder and owner of said note M. Voorheis, for the sum of said note One Thousand Four Hundred ten ~~dollars~~ and 50/100 Dollars and for five years and ten months interest the same being Four hundred Seventy nine and 57/100 Dollars and for ~~10%~~ attorneys fees as provided for in the face of said note the same amounting to One Hundre Nine Dollars, making a total of Two Thousand Seventy Nine and 07/100 Dollars ($2079.07) and the costs of this case. This the 12th day of August 1929. Mason Sanders Attorney in fact.

M. Voorheis
vs. } In the Circuit Court, at Waverly Tenn.,
W.H. Crockett
Dorsey Crockett }

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney, and the plaintiff produced a certain promisory note, in the words and figures following to wit:-

$1410.50

NOTE

Waverly Tenn, Oct, 10- 1929

One day after date we or either of us promised to pay to the order of M. Voorheis Fourteen Hundred Ten & 50/100 Dollars with interest from date. for value received, payable at THE CITIZENS BANK OF WAVERLY, WAVERLY, TENNESSEE. Both makers and endorsers to this note severly and jointly waive demand, no tice of non payment and protest. In the event suit is brought upon this note we, both makers and endorsers, agree to pay 10 per cent attorney's fee to be included in the judgment rendered for collection of same, and we, and each of us both makers and endorsers hereby authorize, Mason Sanders or A.P. McMurry, or either of them at, any time after the above note becomes due, to go before any court of record or before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction thereof in the State of Tennessee, and confess judgment thereof, against us in favor of M. Voorheis, or assigns, for the said amount with interest and cost and the 10 per cent attorneys' fee in accordance with the provisions of Section 4704, 4706 and 4707, Code of Tennessee, Shannon's Edition 1898 W.H. Crockett Dorsey Crockett.

And he also produced a power of Attorney, bearing the same date as the note, authorizing Mason Sanders to appear any before any court of this State and confess judgment against the defendants in favor of the plaintiff on said note at any time after its maturity if unpaid, and thereupon it was duly proved in open Court that the defendants executed said note and power of Attorney, and that they are still living, and the said Mason Sanders, as such attorney in fact confessed that the defendants owed the plaintiff $1410.50 and said note as principal and $ 470.50 as interest thereon and $189.00 as Attorneys fees thereon as provided in said note aggregating Two Thousand Seventy nine and 07/100 Dollars ($2070.07) and agrees that this court might render judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the defendants for said sum.

It is therefore considered that said note and power of attorney be filed and made part of the record of this cause, and that the plaintiff M. Voorheis recover of the defendants W.H. Crockett and Dorsey Crockett, the said sum of $2070.07 and all the costs of this cause for which execution may issue.

J.W. Field
vs.) Circuit Court, Humphreys County, August term 1929 Clyde Harris)
Lester Odum)
Roy Lucas)

This cause was heard before the Hon. J.D.G. Morton, Judge, without the intervention of a jury, upon the whole proof and record in the case when the court was of the opinion that the plaintiff was entitled to a judgment against Lester Odum for damages in the sum of two Hundred and fifty, dollars but not entitled to any judgment against Clyde Harris and Roy Lucas,

It is therefore considered by the court that the plaintiff, recover of Lester Odum, the aforesaid sum of two hundred and fifty dollars as his damages sustained at the hands of said Lester Odum, and the costs of the case for all of which execution will issue.

J.L. Byrn & Son,) vs.) Circuit Court, Humphreys County, Aug. term 1929 E.L. Chance)

This cause came on to be heard and was heard upon motion of defendant to dismiss the case for want of prosecution, whereupon, the plaintiffs, Miss Carrie Byrns and J.W. Fowler, who had been substituted as the administrators of plaintiff, and the cause revived in their names as such plaintiffs, and whereupon they failed to appear and prosecute, after being duly and properly called out in open court, and having failed to appear upon being so called out to come forward and prosecute the case, the court doth dismiss their case and order it stricken from the docket. and taxed said plaintiffs with the costs of the case, for which execution will issue

J.W. Robertson)
vs.)
Dillon Holland &)
J.P. Choate)

This cause was heard on August 12th, 1929 before the Hon. J.D.G. Morton, Judge, without the the intervention of a jury upon the proof introduced and the entire record in the cause, from all of which it satisfactorily appeared to the court that the defendant Dillon Holland is justly indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $18.00, and as to the defendant J.P. Choate that he is dismissed and for nothing held.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the plaintiff have and recover of the defendant Dillon Holland the sum of $18.00 together with the costs of this case, for which execution will issue

Phyllis May) vs.) Pro confesse
David May) In the Circuit Court at Waverly, Tenn.,

In this cause motion of complainant's solicitor's and it duly appearing to the Court that the defendant David May is duly in court by service of subpoena, and that he has failed to appear and make defence to complainant's bill within the time allowed and required by law, it is ordered that Complainant's bill be taken as confessed by him the said David May, and the cause set for hearing EX PARTE.

Phyllis May vs. David May

Decree,
In the Circuit Court of Waverly, Tenn.

This cause came on to be heard the the 14th. day of August 1960, upon the bill of complainant's Phyllis May, and the pro confesso heretofore entered against the defendant, David May and the oral testimony of witnesses examined in open court.

And it satisfactorily appears to the court from the proof that the facts charged in the bill are true, that the defendant had wilfully deserted the complainant without reasonable cause for ~~more~~ than two whole years before the filing of the bill, as charged, that he has also wilfully or maliciously deserted, turned the complainant out of ~~her~~ his house and has failed or refused to provide for her, that the complainant gave the defendant no cause for his misconduct and has not condoned the same.

It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed that ^{by} the court that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be absolutely and forever dissolved and that complainant be vested with all the rights of an unmarried woman.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the child be committed to her sole custody and control.

It is further ordered that the defendant pay all costs of this cause for all of which execution may issue.
