I, Robert McCutchen of the County of Humphreys and state of Tennessee being sound in mind do constitute and ordain this my last will and testament.

After my soul to God and his Grace

I do will for all my lawful debts to be paid out of the whole of my estate,

I do will and bequeath to my beloved wife Martha her living in my dwelling house with that part of my plantation which I bought of William Caldwell and my sister Mary Caldwell containing 76 acres with one negro boy named Starling and one negro girl named Rachel and land and premises as above named to belong to my wife Martha during her natural life. Said Negroes as above designated to be entirely at her disposal forever so.

I do will for my Executors to lay off according to law one years provisions for my family and I further will for the benefit of my family four cows and calves and one two year Durham calf with twenty sheep and some stock hogs at the direction of my executors.

And I will for my waggon and horses to be kept for the use of my family unless it becomes necessary to sell them or a part of them to my debts.

I will for all my stock of cattle hogs and sheep not designated and willed as above to be sold with my crop of all kinds and farming utensils.

I do will and desire for my family to move back to my plantation in Williamson County.

It is my will that my Executors sell or keep my household furniture for the benefit of my family as they may think most expedient.

I will that my Executors keep together all my negroes and work my plantation or hire the Negroes and rent the plantation or any part thereof not otherwise willed as they may (p.240) think most advisable.

I further will that my son Robert Patton have a sufficient amount out of my estate not otherwise appropriated to give him a liberal education.

It is my will that all my estate not willed as above be equally divided between my four children Catherine B, Barbory H, Elias E and Robert P.

I do will and appoint my brother James McCutchen and my wife Martha's brother William Edmonston Executors of my last will and testament. In witness I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of October in the year of our Lord 1839.
