In the name of God, Amen. I, Edward George of the County of Jefferson and State of Tennessee, being sick and weak in body but sound in mind and memory as usual, do thank God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last

Will and Testament, that is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hand of almighty God that gave it; and my body, I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent christian burial at the discretion of my Executors; And as touching such worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. First, that my last debts and funeral charges be first paid. Secondly, I give to my son Silas George two hundred Acres of land in the Island, he giving up the Deed that he has got for land on the North side of ^{the river} French Broad. Thirdly I give to my Daughter Rebekah Sellers and to my son Edward George all my bottom land to be equally divided between them, and two hundred Acres of land to said Edward George at the Sinking spring with liberty of a road to pass and repass to and from the bottom the remainder of my plantation on which I now live to said Rebekah Sellers. Fourthly I give to my son Samuel George two hundred Acres of land adjoining North East to the old place the spring and running stream to be the dividing line down to the Nobs, I also give to said Samuel George thirty seven Acres of land in the island adjoining Silas George's land in said island. Fifthly I give to my Daughter Elizabeth McCallough the sum of seventy pounds
