The Last will and Testament of Jer^m Shelly

- 1 I gave my life to Earth my body to the grave my soul to God who redeemed it through the precious blood of the Lamb
- 2 I will that all my lawful debts be justly paid.
- 3 That all the goods that is in the Store at my decease be sold at Publick sale, the grain excepted, which I will that my dear and loving wife sell to the best advantage for her self and for our Children.
- 4 I will that my Estate be equally divided betwixt my dear and loving wife and my three little Children except my little son Nathan which I will that he is made a good rethmetick and mathematical scholar out of the stock.

5 That the household property be not sold but the same be justly praised by 2 good men and left in the hands of my dear and loving wife Jean for the use of my ~~little~~ little Children during her widowhood

6 I leave this my will to be executed by my worthy friend Alexander Campbell whom I have executed with my dear and loving wife Jean and in the presence of

James Campbell
