

In the name of God amen I Marshal Lovelady being weak in body but perfect in mind and memory knowing that all men is to die nothing doubting but at the last day I shall see God for myself and not for another and as touching my worldly estate to which God has blest me with I make this my last will and testament hoping there may be strict observance of the same. And first I give to Hannah Lovelady my well beloved wife all and every particulars of my estate, but in case of her marriage or joining in wedlock with any person whatsover I do make this my reservation that she shall be entitled to her thirds as the Law directs First I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Brumby my beloved daughter one shilling as my estate is small. Secondly I give and bequeath to Sarah Duncan one shilling for the above mentioned reasons, that is after all lawfull debts is paid, and a Christian burial conferred on me and the remainder of the estate to be equally divided towards paying for schooling and giving necessary learning and the support of my beloved Children that is Abigail Lovelady, Obad and Amos Lovelady Rody and Eleanor Lovelady and the whole to be left at the discretion of my beloved wife Hannah Lovelady in case of her not marrying, if otherwise at the discretion of a Guardian that may be chosen.

Signed sealed in the presence of this 10th day of April 1792
