William Hinslow

Whereas I William Hinslow of Lost Creek in Jefferson County & State of Tennessee, being weak of Body but of sound mind & memory do make and ordain this as my last Will and Testament. First I commend my Soul to God who gave it and my Body to the Earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Friends & Relations. And as to such worldly possessions and treasure

to bless me with it is my Will that the same shall be disposed of after my decease in manner following. First it is my Will that all my Just debts, if any, should be paid by my Executor as soon as can conveniently be done after my decease. Secondly It is my Will that my beloved Wife Margaret Hinshaw should have the whole & sole use of all my Estate both Real & personal during her Widowhood for the purpose of her own support and for the support bringing up & Education of our Children. And in case she should marry again, it is my Will that she ~~should~~ ^{shall} have an Equal part with one of the Children of the movable property.

Item I give & Bequeath unto my son Uriah one third part of my Land to be taken off at the Lower end of the place wherein I now dwell. Item I give & Bequeath unto my son Ezra one third part of my Land joining to Uriah's. Item I give & Bequeath unto my son William one third part of my Land at the upper end joining Ezra's. And in case I should have another son born after this date my Will is that he should have an equal share of Land with my aforementioned three sons.

Cease in manner following. First It is my Will that all my Just debts, if any, should be paid by my Executor as soon as can conveniently be done after my decease

Secondly It is my Will that my beloved Wife Margaret Hinshaw should have the whole & sole use of all my Estate both Real & personal during her Widowhood for the purpose of her own support and for the support bringing up & Education of our Children. And in case she should marry again, it is my Will that she should then only have an Equal part with one of the Children of the movable property.

Now I give & Bequeath unto my Son Uriah one third part of my Land to be taken off at the Lower end of the place wherein I now dwell. Now I give & Bequeath unto my Son Ezra one third part of my Land joining to Uriah's. Now I give & Bequeath unto my son William one third part of my Land at the upper end joining Ezra's.

And in case I should have another Son born after this date my Will is that he should have an equal share of Lands with my aforementioned three sons of the place wherein I now dwell that is one fourth part each.
