

I Hugh Jenkins Senr of the county of Johnson in the State of Tennessee do this fifth day of September A.D.
1836 make publish and declare this my last will & Testament in the form following to wit

To my two Sons Joseph Jenkins & Rowland Jenkins I give and bequeath all my lands lying together & adjoining near the head of the south branch of Round creek where the said Rowland now lives & where said Joseph formerly lived, to be as equally divided between them as practicable so as Rowland shall have the place where he now lives and Joseph that part formerly occupied by him.

To my son Hugh Jenkins and my daughter Ann Gorgon I give and bequeath all my lands lying together and adjoining where I now live (except that part ^{which I gave to Mary Ann Arnold}) to be divided between them by a line running from the top of the Rainbow Mountain directly by the high Bridge across the hollow near the upper end of my land and thence north said hollow to the eastern line of my land all that part of my ^{land} lying north and above said line with the entire Minto attached I give to my said son Hugh Jenkins and all that part lying south and below I give to my said Daughter Ann Gorgon and her heirs forever after the decease of my wife Grace Jenkins.

To Mary Ann Arnold now living with me I give and bequeath a tract or entry of land containing seventy five acres adjoining where I now live and the lands of David Wagner Valer and Shown.

Lastly To my wife Grace Jenkins I give bequeath all the residue & remainder of my property
