Is Audited from the estate of John Duff and on behalf of of Ward M. & D. Duff $ 284.68

For same for few years @ 6 percent 140.80

It may be further to State here that of the sum comprising the said sum of $284.68 that in view of having State there is a note of 10 thousand and four hundred and $185.00 of which

The said Clerk collects only the sum of $100.00 making a loss on said State of 10 thousand and $184.00 which the said Clerk could not collect as there is any remanence left after Settling which the Clerk deems expedient to charge the Clerk with a loss which would be of 102.00 The Ward to sustain a loss of the remainder $102.00 which would settle the account to a credit of one half of the sum of Ward M. & Duff making this sum $51.12

It is further to State how that Mr. Cawood Shannan as a Step at the Waugh Estate page 1st of this Settlement is filed w/ Clarks office with the paper of W. K. Waugh Estate for the rate distributed in said Estate which perhaps may amount to Something but according to the Settlement of said Estate and the probability of the entire ministry of said Estate the Clerk has claimed that he'll dispose of the matter; but should there be anything made in the Waugh Estate the Ward hereof mentioned will be entitled to 5.
