George Roulstone

The last Will and Testament of George Roulstone was produced to Court for probate whereupon James Fumble one of the subscribing Witnesses to to make oath that he saw the said George Roulstone, sign, seal, publish and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, and that he was at the time of publishing the same of sound and perfect mind and memory to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he saw Josiah Ellis sign his name as a concurring evidence thereto, which Will is ordered to be recorded and is in these words, to wit:

In the Name of God Amen. I George Roulstone of the Town of Knoxville being of sound mind and memory, but sorely afflicted in body, knowing the uncertainty of life, and willing to make as equitable a division of my worldly property, as the nature of the case will admit of, and at the same time considering that a Deed of Conveyance has been made to James Grant Roulstone my eldest son to the house and lot, on which I live in the Town of Knoxville and if he obtains an equal division of all my other property, with my other children he would have more than a Just proportion, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. - In the first place I give and bequeath to my loving wife Elizabeth Roulstone one third part of all the land which I own during her natural life. I also give and bequeath my landed property after deducting the one third to my wife during her life time, to my children, Charlotte, Harriet, Maria and George Roulstone, and any other child or children my wife may be pregnant with at my death, to be equally divided amongst them as Tenants in common. I also give and bequeath my personal property after paying all my Just debts, to be equally divided between my loving wife Elizabeth and my children Charlotte, Harriet, Maria and George Roulstone, and any other child or children of which my wife may be pregnant at my death as aforesaid. I do hereby constitute
