To The Executors,

To Balance in their hands due \$308.04 $\frac{1}{4}$

As the undersigned Commissioners appointed by Court on a settlement made this ninth day of October 1816 with the Executors to the Estate of John Montgomery deceased that they have been charged with a book of account against Samuel Hills for twenty five dollars which they shall never come to their hands and on former settlements with commissioners that were appointed by court to settle with them they were never allowed that sum, as will appear reference being had to the records thereof, therefore we have thought proper to allow them that sum, as above stated, We also find themselves due with fifty dollars, twenty seven dollars eighty seven cents as Book accounts against Joseph Rodgers, the Estate that they whole debt due from Rodgers was but fifty dollars, and that the twenty seven dollars eighty seven cents was part of the fifty dollars, and that sum was to have been paid in cattle, which was paid by Rodgers to them & sold by them for twenty one dollars ninety one cents which makes the error above stated,

Robert Patton

At October Sessions 1816. On the motion of Isabella Patton widow of Robert Patton deceased, it is ordered that Thomas Gillespie, Jeremiah Sack and Joseph [unclear], being first sworn, do impartially set apart so much of the crop and provisions on hand as may be necessary to support said widow and her family one year from the death of her said husband and apply to the act of Assembly in such cases made and provided and report to the next court their proceedings thereon.

And at January Sessions 1817 the Commissioners appointed to set apart a year's support to the widow and family of Robert Patton deceased do make as follows.

We the undersigned being appointed by the court of Knox county to allot to Isabella Patton widow and relict of Robert Patton deceased maintenance for her self and family for one year from the decease of her husband and being first sworn we do allot to said widow one hundred and fifty bushels of corn be the crop of corn that was on the ground at the decease of her husband which crop was estimated at two hundred and fifty bushels making in the whole four hundred bushels and the aforesaid one hundred and fifty bushels is rated by us at two shillings per bushel. We do allot to her five hundred weight of pork which has been purchased at four dollars per c. besides the hog mentioned in the inventory that was not sold. We also allow her all the garden vegetables that were growing on the plantation at the time of her husband's decease also all the chickens, the flax and cotton or yarn that was on hand and twenty five dollars in cash for purchase of salt leather and such articles. There are six in family to be supported by the above allotment. Given under our hands this 3^d day of January 1817
