

April Sessions 1813

And after the death my Wife, I give to my sons and John, the negroes Charlot and Letha; but during the life of my Wife, there should be any increase of the Negroes, such increase is not to be considered as the property of those to whom they are herein before given, but my other daughters (Mary and Betsy) shall each have one negro child if there shall be so many, and if there shall be more than two of increase, then my son David shall be entitled to one. If it should ever happen that there shall be greater increase, then such equitable distribution to be made of the residue that the share of each may be of equal value as nearly as can be done.

As it is my desire that my Wife and Children unmarried should continue to live together as a family, all my stock of every description, my farming tools and implements of husbandry and personal estate, not before specially bequeathed are to be kept on the home plantation during the life of my Wife, and the profits arising from the farm stock, &c. to be for the general benefit of the family; Or if William and David settle on, and cultivate the tract of land here before devised to them, they shall be entitled to the use of the Wagon, equally with the other part of the family, and on the marriage of any of my children (except those already provided for as to personal estate) it is my desire that my executor should allot to such child, such part of my personal estate as will be equal in value to that which I have given to my son Allen, and after the death of my Wife, such distribution of the residue to be made, as will make them all equal as nearly as may be.

If at any time any of the stock should increase so as to be more than will be needful, to keep on the farm, my executor shall have power to sell either at public or private sale, as many as they may deem necessary, and apply the proceeds of such sales, to the use and benefit of the family.

After the death of my Wife, I give and devise my home plantation and tract of land to my two sons James and John, and to their heirs forever, but with this express condition, that it is still to remain and be considered a home, for all or any of my Daughters while they continue unmarried.

If any difficulties, or disputes should unfortunately arise, respecting the execution of this my last Will or any valuation of property that may become necessary, it is my Will and desire that all such disputes be referred to some discreet and judicious men to determine the same.

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my Brother James Campbell, and his son William Campbell and my son William L. Campbell Executors of this my last Will and Testament, revoking and disannulling all former Wills, by me at any time made.
