George McNutt.

The last Will and testament of George McNutt was produced to Court for Probate, and Thompson Robert Hancock Hugh L Hatt James Park and James C Cutlines being sworn, doth depose that they are well acquainted with the hand writing of George McNutt deceased and do verily believe that the name subscribed to the said Will is the proper hand writing of the said George McNutt deceased for they frequently saw him write in his life time and that they believe the whole of said instrument of writing to be in the hand writing of said George McNutt deceased with his signature as thereto subscribed and the same is ordered to be recorded and is in the words and figures following to wit—

In the name of God amen, being in perfect State of Health and likely to continue Nothing my appears — Blessed in this world Settled in as just & Equal Manner as I am Capable of and according to my Wishes having no debts to pay I Commend my Soul to god my Body to be Buried near the Remains of my Wife Isabella I am now in my Right Mind though in a low State of health and as there are to many Intervening Concerning my affairs in this World and first the
