John Henning's Will.

I John Henning of the County of Sunderland in the State of Tennessee do make public and this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time made.

I will and direct that my executors pay all of my just debts as soon after my death as practicable.

Prior to my marriage with Sarah Lepton my present wife, in the City of Memphis when & where we resided in Shelby County in the State of Tennessee we mutually entered into an Anti-nuptial Contract which is duly recorded there, in which Anti-nuptial Contract I covenanted to and with the said Sarah Lepton in consideration of our intended marriage, with the privacy and consent of the said Sarah Lepton signified by her being a party to said Anti-nuptial Contract and no further considerations of my charging my estate with a debt of Eight hundred dollars to be paid her in the went of her surviving me, in lieu of dower or any other claim that could attach in anywise to my estate by virtue of said marriage.

I desire that my executors after my decease (Should my wife survive me) use all money & diligence to pay the said debt of Eight hundred dollars to her as early as practicable. Say one moiety of the same as soon after my decease as possible, and the other moiety within one year thereafter. And in making a disposition of any property among my children, I desire to make them as near equal as possible with two exceptions which will appear by this bequest, and more fully to arrive at an equal division of my property and show what each and every child has received at my hands.

I have made a statement of the property and valuation of what I have hitherto given off to my children.

1st I have already given to Richard G. Henning seven acres of the valuation of which far exceeds the amount that I will be able to give my other children and consequently I hereby will him nothing.
