Lauderdale County

I Samuel P. Owens of the County and State aforesaid do hereby make public and declare my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say: I give devise and bequeath to my mother Melissa Owens all of my estate both real & personal which I may be in possession of ^{at the time I am ent. it. with at this time} or may in any wise become entitled unto whatsoever absolutely and forever in fee simple —

And I do hereby more particularly annex a request to the relatives of my deceased father on the Owens side that being within a very short period of that time, when if I when to survive from the attack of sickness I am now visited with and my life be prolonged the provisions of his will on the contingency of my reaching my twenty first year of age or having been married would have been fully met, so as to vest the property absolutely in me under the provisions of his will — That if they object to let the estate under this my last will and testament vest absolutely and in fee simple in my mother as I have bequeathed to her and wish it to take effect, provided the law shall construe my rights as in such will attaching to the same as to enable me thus to bequeath it (if otherwise that they will affect permit all of the estate I might thus have become entitled to, under the happening of either of the contingencies as aforesaid to remain together and in the possession and under the control of my mother Melisa Owen to manage and direct the same as she in her judgment may think proper securing all the rents issues and profits of the same in her own right, without being accountable to any one whatever for the same for and during the term of her natural life.

I make this request with the hope and confidence that it will be respected believing in doing so I am fully and properly respecting the memories of both my parents who together, each bearing their equal share, through their industry frugality and economy made the estate I hereby nominate constitute and appoint my mother Melisa Owen the sole executor to this my last will and testament, with the express directions that she be not required in qualifying as such to give any security for her administration of my estate.
