Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Boydston

In the name of God Amen.

I Elizabeth Boydston of the county of Lauderdale and State of Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but in declining years, and calling to mind the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make, Ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making null and void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made, to wit,

Item 1st I give bequeath and devise to my beloved son Benjamin B. Boydston (my tract of land on which I now reside to him and his heirs forever in fee simple

Item 2nd I give to my beloved daughter Priscilla Boydston a decent support maintenance for and during her natural life, to be found, provided, and furnished by my said son Benjamin B. Boydston, for and in consideration of the devise to him, in the first clause of this will. But this support and maintenance is to be a personal charge on my said son Benjamin and is not to be construed as a charge on the land herein devised to him so as to prevent him from selling and conveying the same in fee free from any charge or incumbrance at any time he may desire to do so after my decease.

Lastly I nominate, constitute and appoint my said son Benjamin B. Boydston sole executor of this my last will and Testament, and direct that he shall or it be required to give bond or security

On Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the 16th day of October A.D. 1851
