M. W. Eggleston Estate

Inventory of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of M. W. Eggleston deceased. I have not been able to get possession of any property, real or personal or choses in action belonging to the said decedent, but have been informed upon authority deemed reliable that the said decedent at his death was the owner of one horse and buggy, one Gold Watch, and one note for about one hundred dollars, should any part or all of said property come into the possession of myself as administrator, I shall ask leave to make a supplemental report &c.

James T. Walker's last will Seward County State of Nebraska
 Nov 3rd 1864

Nov 9th 1864

In the name of God Amen I James P Walker of the county & State above written being of sound mind and discretion & knowing the uncertainty of human life & the certainty of death do make and constitute and establish this my last Will & Testament hereby revoking & annulling all others heretofore made by me, yet I will ~~it~~ bequeath unto my beloved wife Maria Louisa Walker my Carriage, all my stock consisting of horses, mules, cattle, hogs &c & all my house hold and kitchen furniture 2nd I will that the balance of my estate be valued by disinterested appraisers, and that a child's part be set apart to my daughter Louisa, I sugg. to be paid to her in Tennessee money at a fair valuation if there is a sufficiency on hand 3rd I will that the balance of my estate remain undivided in the hands & under the control of my beloved wife Maria Louisa Walker -- for the support maintenance education &c of herself & my children, if my wife should marry again in that case I will that a child's part be set apart to her - & that W. S. Sugg have the control & management of the balance of my estate for the use & benefit of my children until they respectfully become of age or marry 4th I will that as my daughters Mary or my sons become of age they are to have a child's part set apart to them equal to that set apart to my daughter Louisa I Sugg. Should there be a remainder over on the death of my wife to be equally divided among my heirs at law 5th I will and direct that there be no sale of my estate & that my wife Maria Louisa Walker be not held responsible for the management of my said estate so long as there is no misapplication of the proceeds of the same 6th I will and direct that all my indebtedness be paid before the division or setting apart any part of my estate it is intended by the 4th clause that my minor children of there be any on the death of my wife Maria Louisa Walker, shall have & share equal to those who have attained the age of majority or married & then if there be a remainder to be equally divided among my heirs at law I hereby constitute and appoint W. F. Suggs my executor to this my last will and testament, in testimony of which I hereunto set my hand & seal the date and day last above written

Last Will of Peter J Fitzpatrick Decd

I walked along the line to see how the men looked we have the bravest boys in the world in facing I saw Will and I told a peaching flaver at his lectures they were alive with excitement and said very plainly I am ready for the fight he is a brave boy and if he returns and I do not I want him to have any thing I may have after paying my debts

P J Fitzpatrick

The above is the part of a letter addressed to E N Fitzpatrick by P J Fitzpatrick which letter was read in open court at the July Term 1866 and the hand writing was proved in open court by the testimony of E N Fitzpatrick and John Bleasdon when the Court ordered that the above clause of said letter be established and recorded as the last will and Testament of P J Fitzpatrick Decd
