State of Tennessee Lawrence County Be it remembered that John Smallwood of said County being in his own dwelling house in the County of Lawrence, in his last sickness, and but a short time before his death, who being then of a sound mind and disposing mind, called to them about him and particularly to Lucia Hunter the subscribing witness hereto and then told her that he was sensible of his approaching dissolution that he should be glad if it were in his power to make a written will but at the same time observed he had not then sufficient strength and time left to do so he further stated to said witness that his will and desire was that his wife Lucia Smallwood to pay all his just debts, and then to keep for her own separate use all the property of which he was possessed & with that & his own effortions to raise and educate his children who were begotten upon the body of his said wife Lucia and 1st witness further stated that said Smallwood departed this life on the 8th day of November 1828. without any revocation or addition of his will as far as she is informed. This Record to writing
