I, Jeremiah Field, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament- hereby revoking all other wills by me at any other made.

First I will and desire all my property, real, personal and mixed- all moneys due me, or owing to me, by note, account, or otherwise howsoever- and all the money, and property of every character, - I may procure or become entitled to at any time hereafter, (except the sum of Ten Dollars hereinafter bequeathed) to my two Daughters Elizabeth Parker, wife of Thomas Parker, and Mary McKibben, to be equally divided and distributed to them, & between them.

Second- I hereby give and bequeath to my son John Field the above named ~~sum~~ ^{sum} of Ten Dollars, to be paid to him by my Executors hereinafter named, on his order or application. For reasons satisfactory to me I have seen fit to leave my said son only Ten Dollars out of all my Estate.

Third.- In case my daughter Mary should die leaving no child or children, nor the child or children of such, in being at her death, I will and bequeath that portion of my property herein devised to her, to my daughter Elizabeth, or her heirs, - whether my daughter Mary survives me, or dies before I do. If my daughter Mary shall again marry, I desire that she have unrestricted right & title to the personal property bequeathed to her: the real property, however, shall remain subject to the limitation & proviso in the first sentence of this third Item, at all events: and for that reason shall not be sold or exchanged except under the direction of a Court of Chancery, enforcing said limitation. But whether she marries or not, all the property devised & bequeathed to her, real, ~~personal~~, as well as the increase, rents & profits, is intended for her independent and comfortable support; and under the direction of a Court of Chancery, might be sold and appropriated for that purpose, if necessary by reason the insufficiency of the increase rents & profits. (The personal being always first liable, before the realty) The management of all said property, so bequeathed to her, to be in her own hands and the rents, profits, increase, & income from the same, to be hers absolutely, to be used & disposed of as she likes, at any time, & in any way, she pleases.

Fourth. I hereby nominate and appoint my son-in-law Thomas Parker of Williamson County, and Thomas R. Eldridge of Giles County, Executors of this Will.

Signed & attested by us in the presence of each other & of testator and by the Testator signed sealed and published in our presence, as for his last Will & Testament, this twenty first day of January, 1853.
