This Receipt was taken by me in March 1861 and I make the following statement to explain the explanation that will follow
J. H. Plummer & the firm of J. H. Plummer & Son were holding Accounts against R. M. Foster & E. M. Foster & when I made Settlement with them I consolidated the accounts part going to J. H. P. & J. H. P. & Son due R. M. Foster Note for $20 77, $6 88 is due J. H. Plummer & one E. M. Foster Note for $7 88 $2 20 is due J. H. Plummer this is explained on our Books. The Notes on R. M. Foster for $17 30 + $58 95 are going to J. H. Plummer & the Note on the same for $2 20 was payable to J. H. Plummer & J. H. P. with J. H. Plummer, for collection, the Note for $14 96 on R. M. Foster was due J. H. Plummer & Son. I make this explanation as all the Notes are consolidated in the Receipts & taken in my name to show to them payment to be made When said Notes are Collected, C. H. Plummer.

The Accounts due J. H. Hummer & Co. cannot be reported correctly for the same reason assigned for not reporting other accounts in my previous Report, but will state for the information of all concerned unless I have a mistake in my calculation the amount of Accounts due the firm is between $3000 three thousand & $3500 three thousand & five hundred dollars. The entire indebtedness of the firm at present so far as I have any knowledge is due J. H. Hummer in account for Dec 1861 37 50

and amount due Douglas & Co. and for explanation you are referred to page 8th in this Report.

I make the following statement for the information of the Court according to the Articles of agreement between J. H. Hummer & Co. constituting their partnership. A division of notes or accounts.

Inventory of Jas. H. Plummer Continued.
 Can be made until all the indebtedness of Plummer is settled and when that is done it is optional with me to receive so much as wages & one half of the profits arising from said business. J. H. Plummer.
