Lewis County foregoing is a true copy of the last will and testament of Thomas H. Fair the original being lost mistaken or destroyed by the Army. The original will was proven in open Court by the subscribing witnesses Charles Milliken & Turner Milliken, and for some cause I know not what, no record was made and if made it has not been found, I do further swear that I wrote the original will and the copy is word for word the same as the original. The reason I know the copy is the same as the original, in words and substance as the original is this, I wrote Thomas H. Fair's will and I also wrote William J. Fair's and they will let their property and effects pass to the same. except Thomas willed William a share of his estate and William willed Thomas a share of his estate. The day of the month I
