

An Inventory of the personal property of Jacob Whitehead Dec. 20

1 Wagon & hind gear 1 sack screw 1 small brass bowl 6 or 7 head of sheep 1 set of 6 shoats some shoemaker tools 2 pots 1 bushbush corn 1 head of horse two black & two sorrels 1 stocacher & swingfence 2 kegs 1 saddle & bridle 1 fifth chair 1 Barant 1 carrying knife 1 spinning wheel 1 coffee mill 1 blind brook 1 side of salt ~~lotion~~ Debt due by open act on W. Johnson $1.00

" " Braden 1.50

" " Smith 1.75

" " Smith 1.75

The above is a true account of all the personal property of Jacob Whitehead Dec. 20

Jacob Whitehead own

A true copy from the original filed in my office

Baird McFarmer Clerk

An Inventory of the personal property of William King Dec. returned to May term 1874

Money collected from different persons who were indebted to Mr. King will appear from his accounts & memorandums $100.00 one note on George B. Bogg & uncertain whether it will be collected 100.00 $200.00

Peter Nelson clerk

A true copy from the original filed in my office

Baird McFarmer Clerk

William Woody of the County of Lincoln State of Illinois, being weak in body but of a perfect sound mind & memory thanks be to God for the same, do make & declare this my last will & Testament in the manner & form as followeth. First I give my soul to God who gave it to me, & my body to the earth to be decently buried by my executors here after named, I give devise & bequeath unto my beloved Wife Jane Woody the whole of the ~~land~~ ^{estate} of land which I now live, house household furniture & appertinances, & all belonging during her widowhood, I like wife give & bequeath unto my wife all my stock of horses, cattle, sheep, & shop during her widowhood, My will & desire is in case my wife Mary again. I give devise & bequeath the said tract of land that is given to her during her widowhood to my son William Bank Woody, his heirs & assigns for ever, I give devise & bequeath unto my wife in case she marry again, the third part of all my stocks of horses, cattle, sheep & shop that may be left at the time of such marriage, to her, her heirs & assigns forever, the balance of the said household furniture I give devise & bequeath unto my Daughter, Jane Woody excepting one bed & furniture & give & bequeath unto my son William Bank Woody his heirs & assigns for ever the balance of the said stocks of horses, cattle, sheep, & all other personal estate I give devise & bequeath unto my son William B. Woody & to my Daughter Jane