Remble's County Court at October Term 1815

This day came Elizabeth Lloyd and Stephen Lloyd into court who being duly sworn, upon their oaths do say that they heard David Howell in his last sickness, within six months before the death of this wife for probate, for record, publish and in their presence declare the will to be his last will and testament; and that at the time of pronouncing, publishing and declaring the same he was of sound mind and memory.

In Testimony whereof I David H. Garner, clerk of said court have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court at said County day of November 1815.

David H. Garner, clk.

In the name of God, Amen. I William Beaver son of the County of Lincoln and State of Tennessee, being sick and weak in body, know it is appointed for all men come to die, Do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following.

First, I do ordain and give my soul to God as he gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a christian like manner, and as to my worldly estate, as it hath pleased God to bless me with, I give and dispose of in manner and form following.

Item, I Will and bequeath unto my well beloved wife Elizabeth Beaver one hundred fifty bushels of corn yearly with the house and its furniture, to be kept up during her natural life, also the old black horse and grey mare and one cow and calf, also two sows to have pigs and plenty of pork to last her thirty years also two ewes.

Item, I do will and bequeath unto my well beloved sons William and Michael Beaver and equal division of the land and appurtenances thereto belonging, provided that they furnish my wife Elizabeth Beaver with the above mentioned articles, also the horse-mill to be equal profits in, and the Spring each one to enjoy equal privilege of the water; also two breeding sows to my son Michael Beaver; also the rest of the property to be equally divided between my well beloved daughter, Polly Hodge and Sarah Hampton, except twenty five hillsing hogs for the use of the family.

Item, I do appoint and ordain my well beloved son William Beaver Junr and James Broadaway my legal & lawful executory.

Signed in the presence of us this fifth day of November 1815.
