I George C. Will of the County of Lincoln and State of Tennessee knowing how uncertain life is and I now being in a reduced situation as to health so for this and other good causes and considerations, dispose of my property by this my Will and Testament in the following manner that is to say — If I die leaving my wife Charlotte pregnant and she is delivered of a Living Child I then give and bequeath to said Child all debts owing to me in any manner with all my personal property after paying my Just debts, and I do further give & bequeath unto said Child my house and Lot in the Town of Fayetteville and all the land I may have in the firm of Dickson Garner & Will being interested as I now think in about fourteen different tracts or parcels. The before mentioned promises will remain in possession of my wife Charlotte until she marries — then to be for the use of said heir but If I have not an heir as before mentioned then the aforesaid property shall belong exclusively to my wife Charlotte — I wish my wife Charlotte to have the household furniture which I received with her and my wedding suit of clothes It is then my wish that the tract of land whereon my Brother Thomas Will now Lives and the two Negro Boys Harry and Andrew and my corral more shall be and is hereby given to him the said Thomas. I wish it to be further understood that if I have an heir and it should die in infancy then the property willed to it to belong to Charlotte. I do hereby constitute and appoint Francis Porterfield and James Bright executors of this my last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this
