John Sisters last
Will & Testament

In the name of God Amen.
The Sincerely last of Lincoln County State of Tennessee: living in the full enjoyment of health, also being sound in mind, though far advanced in years. Considering the uncertainty of the present life, and the absolute certainty of death, and further wishing that there should be no disturbance, after my decease, to arise out of the distribution of what property I may leave behind; do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any or all wills made of a previous date, by me at any time; First, It is my chief and nearest desire to give into the hands of the creator of the universe, my immortal spirit, in his righteous law, the place and any where, at his sacred disposal, and my body I request to be decently interred, in a Christian-like manner, according everything like prompt, or slow, and after all necessary expenses of my interment have been paid, by the executor whom I shall appoint I desire the balance, to be appropriated in manner and form, following to wit; (Viz)

First to my beloved wife Sarah. I will and bequeath the house in which I live, with other necessary outhouses, with as much of the household and kitchen furniture as she may want, also 2 acres of land at the lower part of my farm, around the house which I now live in, including as much woodland as will answer for fire wood and also to keep the fence of the aforesaid 2 acres in repair also 2 horses & cows, and 2 pigs — also 2 breeding sows, and 3 Bar-motes, with as many other hogs as will do her, enable the same to have pick of the aforesaid store, of all which I may have at my death, also I will allow and set apart money to as she may want to carry on the farm, provided that the young Children stay with her, also I will require said Sarah to assist upon her, also as much as may be required for her for her and the Children with her until such time as she can raise a crop; all the aforesaid property to remain with her and her heirs as she lives or as long as she remains my widow; after her death to be disposed of as I shall hereafter appoint; I will and bequeath to my son David Sisters 20 acres of land, on which lives, to be paid at 23 per acre
