Joel Johnson's
Last will & testament

I Joel Johnson being of sound & perfect mind & memory do make and publish this my last will & testament in manner & form following that to say It is my will that all my just debts be first paid & for this purpose that my executors sell upon a credit of twelve months such part of the tract of land on which I now live as lies south of a line running from a point on the east boundary line of the tract of land on which I now live due west by a school house to the most boundary line of the same tract. After the payment of all my debts it is my will that the whole of my property both real & personal remain in the possession of my wife Margaret all during her widowhood or until my youngest child attains to the age of twenty one years for her support & the proper maintenance & education of my children by said Margaret who is my second wife when my said wife remains or my youngest child attains to the age of twenty one years whichever event shall first happen, it is my will that my executors shall then sell upon a credit of twelve months the whole of my property the proceeds of such sale, to the amount of twelve hundred dollars shall be equally divided between my wife Margaret all & my children by her & the residue of the proceeds of such sale shall be equally divided between my said wife & children & my son Ambrose. I have given to my son Ambrose a horse saddle Bridle & of the value of one hundred dollars. It is my will & I do direct my executors to furnish out of my property to the balance of my children when they respectively attain to the age of twenty one years or many a horse saddle & bridle bed & furniture, or such part of said articles as will be of the value of one hundred dollars. It is my will that all my children be substantially and sufficiently educated out of the annual proceeds of my farm & property, if this fund should not be sufficient for the purpose, then it is my will that my executors sell a sufficient quantity of my property to educate my sons by my present wife taking care not to exceed the amount to which they would be entitled according to this my will upon the division of my property between my wife & children as herein before mentioned I wish to have my sons well educated should it ever require for this purpose the whole of the property which I have given them.

I do hereby appoint my wife Margaret guardian of all my daughters that are under the age of twenty one years and I do appoint my friend James Franklin guardian of such of my sons as are under the age of twenty one years at the time of my death and I do hereby appoint James Hoague and James Cotton executors of this my last will & testament In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 11th day of December 1832

Signed, sealed, published & declared by the donor named Joel Johnson Armistead Pamplin's Last Will.

The last will and Testament of Armistead Pamplin of the County of Sum-of the State of Tennessee. Armistead Pamplin considering the uncertainty of this life and being afflicted and of sound mind & memory blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish this my last will and Testament in manner and form following: Armistead Pamplin do put the whole estate in my Wifes power to live well on the estate so far as this as to sell nothing of much value except the Legacies and all miltling not run the estate in debt any more than possible and if she wants the estate divided let her do when she wants it done but if she desires to keep it to gether and get an overseer she must do it but if she spares any thing to one let it be given to all alike. The legacies are those which are to share alike naming the oldest first William B. Henry, Son, Elizabeth Robert, Armistead & Lucinda, Martha, Joseph, James, and Susan Waggoner, my grand daughter. Each will Susan Waggoner five dollars for an addition to the rest he has had, I will the whole Legacy to the legates and to the heirs of their bodies for ever. But if there be any of my children in distress and she sees proper to let them live on the lands my wife must do as she pleases in that for I put that power in her hand because it is my will to do so, I shew William Pamplin and Joseph my sons, for my executors to see that the Legates are all delt with Justly and to keep the estate together as much as lies in their power and to see that Susan Waggoner has schooling as much as is common for girls to have and if they have that to see to, it must come out of her part, this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills, by me made in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 15th July 1835
