State of Tennessee being of sound mind & memory and being mindful of my mortality do this day of in the year of our Lord 1828 make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following. I desire to be legally buried, and my mark-ly estate I devise as follows. First I desire that all my just debts due me to be collected and my last debts to be paid

I desire that my estate consisting of the land whereon
I now live my negroes to wit, Patsy, Edmund, Melinda Marion, Brown and Lofley, Mills & Harriet, Cattle Hogs, Household & Kitchen furniture farming tools and crop of every description to be sold on a credit of twelve months and the proceeds thereof to be equally divided among my seven children to wit, William Mourai, Louisa V. Nolan, Polly, M. G. Armstrong
Sarah G. M. Wardlaw, Aaron M. G. Blair, Martha El. Harris and Amanda M. Mourai. I desire that the portion which I have bequeathed to my daughter Louisa V. Nolan be placed in the hands of my son William Mourai as trustee for her use during her lifetime and at her death that the same descend to the heirs of her body. I desire that in the event
I should die before my daughter Amanda M.
