

There are the names of my first children, that I consider that I give them more by far than I have to any other last ones. I also have John Smith Esq. and William Spencer, my executors to the said estate.

Test
Thomas Spencer
James H. Spencer
State of Tennessee

Samuel H. Jenkins
mark.

Lincoln County Court, January Session 1832.
The last will and testament of Samuel Jenkins deceased was this day produced in open Court for probate and thereupon came, Thomas Spencer, and James H. Spencer, the subscribers, witnesses thereto, and being duly sworn according to law, said they heard the said Samuel Jenkins acknowledge the same to be his last will and testament, and that he was at the time of signing having perfecting his declaration the same of sound mind and memory. In witness whereof I Peter de Garner have hereunto set my hand this 16th January 1832.

Peter de Garner Ck.
By Peter de Garner Esq.

Henry Austin
Last Will & Testament.

Lincoln County State of Tennessee. — In the name of God Amen. — I Henry

Austin being in a sound state of health, but of sound mind do make this my last will and, revoking all others made by me heretofore. Item 1st My wish and desire that all my just debts, shall be paid out of perishable property. 2nd I give and bequeath all my Cattle property to my grand daughter Annus Bolan, at the death of me and my wife Betty Austin Item 2 I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Annus Bolan first choice of two Beds and furniture, also 2 Blands of curtains that she spun and wore herself, also a pewter dish 3. I give to my son, Harris and William Phillips one Bed and sheet, to be equally divided between the two at our death. 4. I give to Thomas Bolan, one dollar out of my property, 5th I want the balance of this property, equally divided, amongst the balance of my heirs at our death in to trust. Whereof I have, hereunto set my hand, and seal, the day and date, first above written, signed and acknowledged in the presence of Benjamin Reeves.

Matthew Carter,
Henry Hill &

Henry Austin
mark.

State of Tennessee

Lincoln County Court October Term 1831

The last will and testament of Henry Austin was produced in open Court, for probate, whereupon came Benjamin Reeves, Matthew Carter, and Henry Hill, the subscribers, witnesses thereto, and being duly sworn, say they saw the Henry Austin sign seal, publish, or heard him acknowledge this to be his last will and that he was at the time of signing having and declaring the same of sound mind and memory. In witness whereof I Peter de Garner have hereunto set my hand this 25th October 1831.

Peter de Garner Ck.

By Peter de Garner Esq.

David Reeds Last Will & Testament

Lincoln County West Tennessee, Sept 6th 1831 David Reeds will

In the name of God Amen.

I David Reeds calling to mind the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory. do make and publish, this my last will and testament in manner and form following (viz) 1. That all my lawful and just debts shall be paid 2 I give and bequeath to my son John Hamilton my plantation on which I now live, to him and his heirs forever, 3 I give and bequeath to my daughter Jane, Martha Jane, my negro girl Anna, to her and her heirs forever, 4 I do furthermore give and bequeath to my daughter Martha Jane two Beds together with their furniture to her forever, 5 I do give and bequeath to my son John Hamilton one Bed recorded Jan 1832.

By Peter de Garner Esq.