

Ezekiel Norris's last will.

In the name of God amen.

I Ezekiel Norris of the County of Lincoln & State of Tennessee being of sound mind & memory do make and ordain this my last will & testament in manner following (viz)

First after my decease I require my executors to pay all my just debts out of money out of money owing or that may be on hand.

Second I give unto my son John M. Norris all that part of the tract of land whereon I now live lying west of Norris's creek and south & west of the town of Fayetteville supposed to contain one hundred & twenty acres. Also one negro boy named Daniel also my farming utensils, horse, bridle & saddle, and one cow & calf, likewise bed & furniture.

Third I give unto my son Henry Norris all that part of my land lying on the east of Norris's creek supposed to contain nearly five acres, to be placed in the hands of a suitable Guardian for his use, to be given up to him when thought capable of taking care of the same. Also bed & furniture.

Fourth I give unto my daughter Cynthia Norris forty & one half acres of land lying in the north west corner of the tract I now live on binding on the north boundary line. Also one negro girl named Sophia bed and furniture and bureau.

Fifth I give unto my daughter Minerva forty and one half acres of land lying south of the land that I have in this will given to my daughter Cynthia to be placed in the hands of my sons William & John M. Norris for her use to be kept in their possession until they may think proper to give her the management of the same.

Sixth I give unto my daughter Emily, one negro girl named Monah, also one thousand dollars to be paid out of money owing me by my son William Norris. Bed & furniture & Escentaine.

Seventh I state all that part of my estate not disposed of in this my will to be equally divided between my children. That part falling to my daughter Minerva to be placed in the hands of my son William & J. M. Norris for her use & benefit to be rendered to her when they may think proper.

And I do hereby nominate & appoint my friends Francis Parkfield Esq. & Thomas Clarke Esq. Executors of this my last will & testament.

Given under my hand and seal this 17th day of January A.D. 1827
