Received November 21 1844

State of Tennessee
Lincoln County } I Henry Londe being of sound mind do make and publish this my last will and testament revoking all others: In the name of God amen First. It is my wish after my death to be buried in a decent and respectable manner Second. I will that my burial & funeral expenses together with all my debts be paid Third. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Georgy my Tract of land where I now live my negro woman Amanda and as much of my household and kitchen and of my stock of all kinds and provender on hand as she may think fit or proper to have and to hold during her natural life the stock furniture and provision to be designated previous to the sale Fourth. I give to my daughter Hannah Tract Polly Green and Henry & July each fifty dollars and to the children of my daughter Jane who is unmarried

James T. Smith (and has since died) having five dollars each out of the first moneys collected my Daughter Susan Eaton I consider received her portion of my estate in the sale of a tract of land I heretofore sold her husband Alfred Eaton

First I gave to my two sons John and Joseph Thompson each one hundred and twenty dollars to make them equal with my son Henry Harman for a certain parcel house which he took with him when he left this County which I consider worth that amount and lastly that My Negro man Jackson to go then with the remainder of my household and kitchen furniture stock provisions &c after my ^{wife's} death selection be sold as soon as convenient after my death and the land and negro woman Ann and together with that portion of household & kitchen furniture stock that be living to be sold after the death of my wife and equally distributed between my three sons John Henry Harman and Joseph Thompson

And I do hereby appoint my son John Landels to execute and carry into effect this my last will and Testament
