James Cheatham's last Will.

In the name of God amen
I James Cheatham of the County of Lincoln & State of Tennessee, being of sound mind & memory, calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make, ordain, publish & declare the following to be my last will and testament in writing to wit.

- 1st I recommend my soul to God who governs, and my body to the earth to be decently buried.
- 2^d I will and desire that all my just debts be paid; and that all sums due me be collected for that purpose.
- 3^d I give and bequeath to my dear and well beloved wife Rebecca Cheatham for and during the term of her natural life, or during the term of her widowhood and no longer the whole of the land & plantation on which I now live; and also the whole of my household & kitchen furniture; and also two work horses & farming tools accordingly; and also such parts of my stock of Cattle and hogs as she may need for the support of our surviving family; and also the following slaves, to wit, George and his wife Rose and their children John & Lydia.

4th It is my will and desire that my negro man slave Anthony be sold, and also all such parts of my personal estate as can be spared by my family, which may be determined by my widow & Executors having due regard to the interest of my heirs.

5th I give and bequeath to my four children Elmer Cheatham, Solomon Cheatham, Betsey R. Cheatham and Albert W. Cheatham the whole of my estate as well real as personal of every description to be equally divided among them share & share alike agreeably to the provisions of law. And I do further give and bequeath to my son Elmer Cheatham my young mare Phoenia & to my son Solomon Cheatham my young horse Cott Dolphin both of which to be accounted for at their value on a final settlement, and also I give and bequeath to each of my aforesaid four children a feather bed and furniture to be as near of equal value as convenient. And it is further my will & desire that each of my aforesaid children on his or her arriving or coming of age shall be paid his or her distributive share of whatever amount may be in the hands of my Executors arriving from bonds and the collection of debts.

6th It is my will and desire that my family all be kept together, and that each of my above named children may receive a suitable education

7th I hereby constitute and appoint William Shipp and Joel Pinson executors to this my last will & testament and hereby charge them with the faithful execution of the same.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 12th day of December 1826
