 Last
 Will and Testament

In the Name of God Amen.

Thus as I the undersigned Jeremiah Bryan of the county of Rivede and State of Tennessee though weak in body yet enjoying a sound and perfect memory and understanding and considering that all must die I have thought proper to make public and declare the following to be my last will and Testament. 1st I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Rosannah during her natural life and at her death to descend to my son Newton Perry one feather bed and furniture one corner Cupboard one long pendulum Clock one dining Table one cotton wheel one looking glass two sitting chairs two bed stands and four head of sheep. 2^d I give and bequeath to my sons Newton Perry and William Carroll Bryan one feather bed and their furniture each which I estimate as worth dollars each. I have already given to my son James Bryan upon his setting out upon life one mare one feather bed a stock of hogs and a small tract of Land all of which I estimate as worth two hundred dollars. And as he possesses the advantage of mature manhood whilst some other of my children are helpless minors I give and bequeath to him the further sum of Thirty dollars as a final settlement of all accounts, debts legacies and bequeath to my daughter Jane Bolan and her husband Elijah I have given already one mare one cow and 3 hogs which I estimate as worth fifty dollars to Harvey Bryan my son.

I have already given one mare one cow and one bed and furniture and some hogs which I estimate as worth sixty dollars. It is my will and desire that after my decease my Executor who I have after appointed sell all my lands with their appurtenances on a credit of one, two and three years one third of the price then I give and bequeath to my wife Rosannah during her life then to descend to our son Newton Perry Bryan in the room of her dowry in the said lands which she agrees to accept of. My stock of horses cattle sheep and hogs are my gunnills and all other implements and utensils farming Tools House hold and kitchen furniture of all and every name and description I direct that it or they be sold on a credit of twelve months by my Executors that are not already bequeathed or herein otherwise disposed of. To Joel Brauer I hereby give in trust my black mare Jack and direct that the said trustee allow and permit him the said Jack to hire his own time at Forty dollars for each year until he the said Jack shall pay to my Estate the sum of Five hundred dollars over and above his hire then I will and direct that he acquire freedom in conformity to law. My slave Betty I give and bequeath to Robert Moor and estimate her value at two hundred and fifty dollars and direct that Bob be sold as the other chattels of my estate. It is my will and desire that all my debts be paid and that the neat proceeds of my Estate be divided amongst my children equally after such of them as are charged with an out fit shall have accounted to my estate the amount already received by them or any special gift or bequest in this my last will set forth. I hereby nominate and appoint Joel Brauer and Malabiah News or either of them Executors to this my last will and Testament. The Legacy or filial Portion of my daughter Mary now married to William Justice Donell and desire that my Executors retain in their own hands, in trust and pay over to them the said Williams and Mary Justice in such sums as a prudent necessity may require. Five hundred dollars is all that I require of Cash before he acquires a right to Freedom and insert this item in explanation of the clause on this subject which was made to read by interlineation as though I required that he were over his yearly hire. Such legacy or filial Portion as may be coming out of my estate to Elijah Bolan and Jane Bolan I will and desire that my Executors, retain in their own hands, in trust for their use and pay over the same in such sums as a prudent necessity may require. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fifth day of September 1834. 3rd
