Medwige Foster

Lincoln County Court April Term 1832.

The last will and Testament of Medwige Foster was this day before Court produced for probate, and thereupon Camm R. J. Harrison and William M. Stokes, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn according to law, said they heard the said Medwige acknowledge the same of which the above is a copy to be his last will and Testament, and that he was at the time of signing selling publishing and declaring the same of sound mind and memory, which is ordered to be so certified, whereupon Camm R. J.
 Harrison was the executor by Court appointed, and took the oath prescribed by law, entered into bond, and gave bond to carry to law, given under my hand this 16th of April 1832.

 John Sisk's Last
 Will & Testament.

In the name of God Amen. I John Sisk of Lincoln County State of Tennessee, being in the full enjoyment of health, also being sound in mind, though I am advanced in years, Considering the uncertainty of the present life, and the absolute certainty of death, and further wishing that there should be no disturbance, after my decease, to arise out of the distribution of what property I may leave behind, as make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any or all wills made of a previous date, by me at any time;

First, It is my chief and noblest desire to give into the hands of the Creator, of the universe, my immortal spirit as his rightful due, to be placed as he pleases, at his sacred disposal, and my body I request to be decently interred, in a Christian like manner, avoiding everything like pomp, or show, and after all necessary expenses of my interment have been paid, by the executor whom I shall appoint I desire the balance, to be appropriated in manner and for, following to wit: (Viz)

First to my beloved wife Deborah Sisk I will and bequeath the house in which I live, with other necessary outbuildings, with as much of the house hold and kitchen furniture as she may want, also 50 acres of land at the lower part of my farm, around the house which I now live in, including as much woodland, as will answer for fire wood and also to keep the fence of the aforesaid 50 acres in repair also 2 horses, 2 cows, and 2 pigs — also 2 breeding sows, and 2 Bar mares, with as many other hogs as will do her, until she can make a stock, to have pick off the aforesaid things, of all which I may have at my death, also one plow and as many tools as she may want to carry on the farm, provided that the young children stay with her, also one negro girl named Sally to wait upon her, also as much money as will answer for her and the children with her until such time as she can raise a crop; all the aforesaid property to remain with her and her heirs as she lives or as long as she remains my widow; after my death to be disposed of as I shall hereafter appoint; I will and bequeath to my son Daniel Sisk, 50 acres of land, on which lives, to be paid at $3 per acre per land is owned by the same owner, Commencing north east Poplar, sugar tree, pine, Beech, & Oak, & Beech, sugar tree and Elm, unto my son Benjamin after my wife's death, or intermarriage the 50 acres given to him with the improvements to be paid at $5. per acre, the same price as the other named lands before mentioned - Whiting, my son George Sivilly, Sivilly and bequest, 66 acres of land, which he now has in his possession, above which my son has 100 acres of land priced at $5 per acre, amounting to $500. unto my son Benjamin and Harrison, Sivilly and bequest, 109 acres of land, lying between the 50 acres given to my son Benjamin, after my wife's death, or intermarriage and the land given to my son, Sivilly and bequest, to be paid at $5. per acre, amounting to $545. Sivilly and bequest to my son, Sivilly 100 acres of land lying at the head of Short Creek, which I intend agreeing to land at $5. per acre amounting to $500. said land begins at a poplar and Beech, at the head of the Spring

David and John, I do therefore, appoint them my sole executor to carry into effect, every thing as contained in this my last request. Also I wish them, to see, that nothing is lost, or wasted, or squandered away; on the part on which my wife lives. In witness whereof I have, hereunto set my hand, and affixed my seal this thirtieth day of April in the year of our Lord a thousand hundred and thirty one.
