Joseph Davis In the name of God Amen, I Joseph Davis being last will & testament in bed & of sound mind & disposing memory, first of all I commit my soul to God who gave it & my will is that, after all my debts are paid, my remaining property shall be disposed of in the following manner, to wit, all the land which I hold in Lincoln County shall be divided equally between my beloved wife Mary Ann, and my children, giving her choice of situations for her residence, except the place where John A. Moore now lives, which is hereby reserved to him, and to which I wish my heirs to make him title according to the following line, to wit, beginning at William Olden's south west corner, running thence fork of the creek, below where the said John now lives, thence in a course to correspond with said line to the top of the ridge on the north of the creek thence along the top of the ridge eastwardly until it intersected the line of a three hundred and a hundred and a hundred and a hundred in the name of Thomas Saltbott, thence a north line said line, until it intersects said old line, thence a west with said line to the beginning 3rd My Negroes I wish to be divided equally between my beloved wife Mary Ann and my children. 4th All the land & property I have bought at Thomas Saltbott's sale I wish to be sold and the proceeds (then over)

and after obtaining the money I paid out for said land & property with lawful interest from the date of said sale, the balance thereof to be disposed of in the following manner (to wit) to Eliza Salbott then then and doctant, to Joseph A. Salbott the two thousand dollars, the then is Salbott two thousand to Eliza Salbott.

To Sarah Stitches,

To Caroline Salbott

To Polly Hogg

I should two hundred acres of land in the western district, which I have authorized John A. Harmon to sell for my benefit, when such sale is effected my will is that the money arising from such sale, shall be divided equally between my beloved wife & children. 6th My land in Kean County East Tennessee lying on Camp River, I also wish to be ^{the proceeds thereof} sold and divided as above. 7th The lands in Kentucky, belonging to the heirs of John Harmon deceased my beloved wife being one of the heirs and I being authorized as agent to dispose of the same for the benefit of all the heirs, I wish this land to be sold & such as have conveyed to me without consideration to have an equal proportion of the money arising from said sale and the balance divided amongst all my heirs. 8th It is my will, that on the payment by my brother John of the money I paid for his part of the mills belowtown on Elk River, at the Marshall's sale, with legal interest from the date of said sale, to my heirs, together with the money I paid out & the interest thereon for thirty acres of land, which land formerly belonged to Brother John, then I wish that Case I wish my heirs to convey back to him his part of said mills, together with the thirty acres of land appraised. 9th I hold a mortgage on my brother John's negroes and my will is that he pay my brother Thomas five hundred & two dollars, which I agreed to pay him on my Brother John's debt and which express I require shall be paid immediately, and also the money I paid on said mortgage with legal interest from the date of said mortgage then & in that case my will is that the said negroes be released from said mortgage with the plantation on which my brother John now lives I purchased at Marshall's sale, which plantation I wish my heirs to convey to him on his paying the money I paid for it, with lawful interest from the date of said sale, which money I wish to be divided as heretofore expressed, 11th It is probable there is at this time maybe or there will be a quantity of iron at different landing of mine, the sorts of iron being bands, which I think advisable to sell then if a sale can be effected —

Without too much delay & the money applied as above. 13th The estate of Elizabeth Williamson deceased I brought at Sheriff's sale, which estate I wish conveyed to her only child Sarah Jane, on paying to my heirs the money I gave for it, which shall be disposed of as otherwise of my estate was. I appoint my executors to have this my last will & testament carried into effect to wit, my beloved wife Mary Ann my son Joseph my brother Thomas, and John Hutton.
