at my barn, thence running with the lane towards the mill within six poles of said mill, thence north west to Jos M. Cluskeys line, thence east with said line to John Yagers line, thence south so as to include the orchard, thence west to the road, thence north with said road to the barn to hold during her natural life or widowhood and provided she should marry that she pay half rent for the land; and likewise one work creature worth fifty dollars & two cows & calves & two beds and furniture, one pot and one oven with one hundred and twenty dollars. And the balance of my perishable property to be sold and the money arising therefrom I give and bequeath - that my son Constant shall have one hundred dollars. And my son Thomas shall have one hundred dollars. And my daughter Teresa Carmel shall have a negro boy by the name of Lindsey & twenty dollars. And my daughter Nancy Caroline I give a negro boy named Lerry and one hundred dollars when it can be got by the rent of my land or the hire of my negroes. And my sons William and Samuel & and John and Edmond and Lewis; and my daughter Mary ann the balance of the money arising from my perishable property with my mill and one
