

I John W. Linnard do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any other time made. I do not that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my executor.

I bequeath I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Katey the Land where I now live for the support of her and her children during her natural life or widowhood and the land at her death to be divided and the proceeds divided or the Land divided at the discretion of the heirs. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Katey a parcel of land named as follows also one parcel more. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Katey all the Beggars of my property consisting of horses cattle sheep and hogs horse hold and kitchen furniture farming utensils & with the corn crop now growing the oats and wheat crop.

Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint John W. Daniel my executor in writing whereof I do to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal this 14th July 1846. his Signed sealed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names in the presence of the witnesses
John W. Linnard
John W. Daniel
Samuel D. Mellikin
Andrew Bone
Wade H. McRae

form and admitted to Record at the Oct Term 1846

In the name of God amen.

I Moody Taylor of the County of Lincoln and State of Kentucky thinking that it is appropriate for all men once to die mindful of my departure from this mortal state and the happiness of the offspring of my body that I may have behind and living in sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby making all former wills void. in the first place it is my will after my death that my body be decently buried in the earth from whence it came and that my funeral charges and last debts be punctually paid by my executors hereafter named out of my Estate then it is my will and so hereby give and bequeath unto my present beloved wife Nancy Taylor now living with me all my living stock of every description animals of every kind and all my household furniture of every kind and all my farming tools of every kind and the use and occupation of so much of my plantation whereon I now live as to support herself and two daughters named Louisa and Caroline Taylor also the use of six of my negroes namely Hector Solomon and my little Hector and Emeline my land hereafter willed to my son John W. Taylor but for my wife Nancy Taylor not to be disposed of any of the property left to her mother or at her personal without leave of my executor all of which said estate to her bequeathed. It is my will that she possess and enjoy after my death retain and continue in possession of the same and the use and benefit thereof during her natural life or widowhood only for the purpose of raising providing and supporting of my two daughters above named so long as they remain single and with their mother and at her death or marriage the said property left to her and the increase of it to be equally divided among my six children hereafter named by my executor (viz)

William Elizabeth John Polly Louisa & Caroline which I have had born to me by the said Nancy & do hereby give and bequeath unto my son Mr. J. Taylor five hundred dollars which I have delivered to him also one negro boy named hollow which named negro at my decease is to be the property of my son above named Mr. J. Taylor with an equal share of the balance of the above named property I do give and bequeath unto my daughter Eliza with my negro boy George and to descend to her heirs forever which boy I have delivered,

I give and bequeath unto my son John H. Taylor all my right title and interest to the tract of land known by new line containing about one hundred and thirty acres of land by deed of conveyance from James Lewis to me that it is my will as also stated that my wife Nancy have the possession of it or so much thereof as may be sufficient to support her during her natural lifetime or widow hood and the support of my two daughters Louisa and Caroline so long as they remain unmarried and with their mother I do give and bequeath unto my daughter Polly my negro boy named Aaron and to descend to her heirs forever which boy Aaron is delivered I do give and bequeath to my daughter Louisa my negro boy named Moses which boy is to be delivered when she marries or at my decease which boy is to descend to her heirs forever and if said boy Moses dies before he is delivered to Louisa then at my death for her to have four hundred and fifty dollars out of my Estate also two beds and furniture with the one Bedstead which is delivered two horses known by the name of Mark and feet which horses is delivered and if Louisa dies without an heir then the above named property to be equally divided among the surviving balance of my children - I do give and bequeath unto my daughter Caroline my two negro kids named Lucy and Sally which negroes if they die before they are delivered to Caroline then she is to have four hundred and fifty dollars of my Estate at my death and if one of them dies she is to have two hundred and twenty five dollars out of my estate at my decease which property is to descend to her heirs forever two beds and furniture with one Grey mare pegasus which property I say bed and stool and chest is delivered and if Caroline dies without a lawful heir the above named property to be equally divided amongst my surviving children

I do hereby nominate ordain and appoint my son William J. Taylor of Franklin County and Joseph Adkins of Lincoln County the Executors of the my last will and testament Antitany other if I have been unto set my hand and seal this thirtieth day of ~~April~~ in thousand eight hundred and ~~thirty two~~

Signed in presence of (Brody Taylor)

John W. Hamilton
A. C. Hamilton

Proven and admitted to record at
Cotton Town 1846

Henry P. Renshaw