I Daniel Lee, having heretofore made and published my last will and testament, do make and declare this as a Codicil thereto, to wit

First that there be thirty feet square of my land nearest from Sale, in such manner, as to include the grave yard, and that there be a stone wall built around the graves, which wall be four feet high and eighteen inches thick, and paid for out of my estate, lastly it is my desire this land be attached to and constitute a part of my will to all intent and purposes this 15th day of November 1852
