Last Will & Testament of Henry Renegar

State of Tennessee Placed at a Circuit Court begun and held for the County of Lincoln at the Court, begun in the Town of Fayetteville in said State of Tennessee on the first Monday in March the same being the 7th day of said Month, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty second and of the American Independence the 83rd year -

Present the Honorable A. J. March Judge of the Judge in and for said State of Tennessee, and assigned to hear the Cause in the 8th Judicial Circuit including the County of Lincoln

At said Term among other proceedings the following were read to wit -

Margaret Renegar, James Renegar
John McRenegar & Nicholas Renegar

vs
Jacob Weeks & Henry Weeks

Contested Will
No 12

This day again came the parties by their Attorneys and the jury retired to room in this case returned into Court to resume the further consideration of the same, and after hearing the balance of the testimony and arguments of Counsel and having received a charge from the Court upon the law returned to consider of their Verdict; And after a short time spent therein returned into Court and, upon their Oaths, affirmed and say that the testamentary paper writing mentioned in the pleadings purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Henry Renegar deceased, is not the Will of said Henry Renegar as to his Real estate, but that it is his Will as to his personal property. - It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Henry Renegar as mentioned in the pleadings, is not his Will as to his Real estate, but that said paper writing so far as the personal property is concerned be established in the Last Will and Testament of said Henry Renegar &c. And the same be certified to the County Court to be recorded together with the original Will; And that the plaintiffs recover of the defendants and A. A. Weeks, H. S. Ashby and J. H. Ashby their attorneys in the present in Bond the Costs of this suit for which they renewed their
