of the County of Lincoln and State of Tennessee I William Old being of sound mind do ordain this my last will and testament

First after my decease to be decently buried.

Secondly It is my will that all the lands of which I die seized shall be and remain in the possession of my beloved wife Nancy Old during her natural life and the rents and profits to bear for ~~and~~ ^{and make} her also for her to retain as much stock as she may determine necessary. - Also I give to my wife as much household Property as she may need. Also, I give to her the following named negroes to wit, Charles, and his wife Abby and Abraham & his wife Jane to have and keep the said negroes her lifetime and at her death she can either set them free or make any other disposition of them she may think proper at the death of my wife the land all excepting one half acre of ground including the grave yard to be sold and the proceeds equally divided among all the legatees. It is my will that at at my death and after my wife has made distribution of stock etc as above stated the balance of my property of every description except my negroes to be publicly sold to the highest bidder on the premises and the proceeds together with all the monies on hand debts due me after paying all my just debts to be divided so as to make all my legatees equal taking the advancements hereinafter made to them as hereinafter stated. First having paid out to my wife the sum of three hundred and dollars on which further sum I give to her and that the amount may be equal. Second
