All the one and of the stores I may be possessed of I give and bequeath to my seven following children To wit Thomas Dickins, Robert L. Dickins, Samuel B. Dickins, Edmund H. V. Dickins, Ann V. Martin, Sally Martin, and Mary Sam. Dickins to be divided between them equally when one shall die. All the residue of my lands and real estate I give and bequeath to to my son Thomas Dickins, Robert L. Dickins, Samuel B. Dickins, Edmund H. V. Dickins and to my daughter Martha L. Buzz, Ann V. Martin, Sally Martin, Mary Sam. Dickins and to the care of trustees John D. Martin, Andrew L. Martin and Edmund H. V. Dickins in Trust for the use and purchase hereafter mentioned which I give and bequeath to them my said children and trustees and their heirs respectively to be divided between them respectively and in the division of said lands my son Thomas must be charged with the sum of three thousand two hundred and fifty dollars for lands hereafter conveyed to him and in like manner my son Robert L. must be charged with eight thousand dollars and in like manner my son Edmund B. must be charged with eight thousand dollars, and in like manner my son Edmund H. V. must be charged with the sum of three thousand four hundred dollars, my daughter Martha L. Buzz with two thousand four hundred dollars, my daughter Ann V. Martin with two thousand two hundred and ten dollars, my daughter Sally Martin with two thousand two hundred and ten dollars for lands hereafter conveyed to her husband and my daughter Mary Sam must be charged with two thousand two hundred and forty dollars for the lands devised to her in this will pay five and the said trustees to be charged with one hundred dollars for the lands advanced to them in business over the cost of a crop of rice

It being my wish and intention to make an equal distribution of all my personal estate between all my children the said trustees representing and substituting for my daughter Elizabeth B. Burt I wish a fair division of all the personal property I am possessed of together with that before given away to my children to be made together with the value of bank stock cash in hand notes annuities dividends and other claims after my debts are paid on which estate the property devised to my said wife Mary is not to be made or taken into the account or as made by me to be received therefore all the residue my said personal estate not already or hereafter subject to the payment of each note Bonds annuities and other claims I give and bequeath to my said eight children, Thomas, Robert L. Samuel B. Edmund H. V. Mary Sam, Martha L. Buzz, Ann V. Martin and Sally Martin and to the said trustees John D. Martin Andrew L. Martin and Edmund H. V. to be divided in such shares first charging my son Thomas with the value of the same before given to him and the value of those devised to him under this will also the sum of three thousand dollars. Also my son Robert L. must be charged with the value of the same he receives under this will and before given to him by me and in like manner my son Edmund H. V. must be charged with the value of the same he receives under this will, in like manner my daughter Martha L. Buzz must be charged with the value of the same she receives under this will, in like manner my daughter Ann V. Martin must be charged with the value of the same she receives under this will and the same before given by me to her and in like manner my daughter Sally Martin must be charged with the value of the same she receives under this will and the same before given by me to her and in like manner my daughter Martha L. Buzz must be charged with the value of the same she receives under this will and the further sum of three thousand three hundred dollars for same before given to her and one purchase of her husband and in like manner the said trustee John D. Martin Andrew L. Martin and Edmund H. V. Dickins are to be charged with the value of the bank stock they receive in Trust under this will and my said daughter Sally Martin is to be further charged with the sum of two thousand three hundred dollars and to be received in like manner from her share of being about the amount as well as I can recollect of my money by my permission and request used by her husband also my son Samuel B. must be charged with the value of the same he receives under this will and the same before given by me and the further sum of three thousand four hundred dollars a part of the amount I give him to appear on lands

It is my will and aim and therefore direct that the notes given to me by my son Thomas should be received at the rate of the same for the before mentioned sum of two thousand dollars devised to be charged to him the same being included in the said sum and I further direct that the interest on the balance of his notes shall only be charged from the 1st day of January 1836

If from misfortune or otherwise the special legacies cannot be paid and then come to the other seven (my children or said trustees) an equal share in value an equal division must be made from the special legacies so as to make the said seven shares equal in value

All the property both real and personal herein devised to John D. Martin, Andrew L. Martin and Edmund H. V. Dickins they are to hold in Trust for the use and benefit of my daughter Elizabeth B. Burt and her children present and future and they the said trustees or any two of them or the survivor in behalf of them with full power authority to sell and convey the whole or any part thereof for the use and benefit of the said Elizabeth and children to meet and satisfy the process and to manage the whole in any way they may think will promote their interest save the consent of my said daughter Elizabeth. I further give the said Thomas power and authority if they think proper and it is the wish of my said daughter Elizabeth to allot to any one or more of her children as they may see fit a part of the said property not to exceed a chess piece before the death of the said Elizabeth and after her death the whole of the said property to be equally divided between all her living children and the heirs of those which may be dead the said heirs taking only their ane share and the share the ancestor would have been entitled to if a line and when arrangements have been made the same to be received for by the party to whom made.

As soon as my will is paid I request that the undersigned acts and clauses be in full forthwith united together with the money that may be then in hand.

I appoint my friends the honorable John Penn Esq. Joseph To Shalbot and Major Joseph Chamberlaine etc. of London in the County of Middlesex Commissioners to make all and any necessary and convenient to the will and then one or the one and some of either two of them shall be binding in all process concerns or in any way whatsoever as disputes, controversies, differences of opinions arising as to be adjusted arbitrated and settled by the said commissioners or either two and their award shall be binding in all process concerns and suits of any kind and for all purposes between any of my said issues and heirs being authorized to make all necessary valuations and allotments the said commissioners or any two of them are authorized and empowered to so make a final agreement with my Executor (or either two of them) giving notice by mail or otherwise to my children notice may be then alone of the time and place they intend to proceed to make the said settlement and the said commissioners shall be allowed a reasonable compensation. I request that my family grave yard at Weymouth be secured by a brick wall made of the best brick (forthwith) and whenever the said Weymouth Lane and premises by the death of my beloved wife Mary or otherwise come to my care I request and empower my Executor to sell the said Lane and premises with all of its appurtenances either at private or public sale and the proceeds to be converted for and distributed as other debts or among the family grave yard including one fourth of an acre to be reserved and not sold.

I appoint my son in Law Samuel L. Weston Guardian to my son Samuel Toth and to my daughter Mary Jane and Empower him to sell and convey for them use and benefit all or any part of the lands they may own in the State of Virginia.

I nominate and appoint my son in Law John D. Weston Executor to the my Last Will and Testament and desire that security shall not be required and to compensate him for his trouble in settling up and managing my estate he shall be allowed Eighteen Hundred Dollars and all necessary traveling Expenses and his Expenses when attending courts and other business which is in the discharge of his duties as Executor.

I further give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary all sum or sums due from her brother George To Weston in Judgments bonds or otherwise and on half of the amount of the sale of Montpelier after deducting from the whole amount of sale the amount paid and to be paid to Mr. James Shaw for his interest & I also give and bequeath to my beloved wife in cash on humane dollars which I owe my Executor to pay to her on my death after my death and I also give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Johnne Parker the mother of Sells and Hannah the mother of Christiana To Whom I bequeath all my house and land on the fifteenth page two blank pages being by mistake left out and included in the number fifteen the said blank pages read together by me with two before.
