James D. McCallan clk

It may not be improper to observe that the administrator has been sued upon on divers claims against said decd. & Pusey in order to make said Estate liable for a copartnership of Benjamin Pusey deceased, which is resisted & denied by the administrator, but as these suits are not determined as to the fact of liability, or no liability, I cannot at this time say as to the propriety of them, more especially as the claimants in said suits have not filed their claims in pursuance of the notice given under the suggestion of insolvency
