names in presence of said testator and at his Special Request David M. Lakey & Alexander Beggars

I Peter Lima having hereupon made and published the foregoing as my last will and testament do make and declare this to be a Codicil thereto to wit:

First. It is my desire and I do so desire that the disposition made of my lands in the third item of the foregoing will bequeathing the same to my sons James Lima Peter Lima and John C. Lima, be revoked and nulla pro nothing - and that in room of said devise hereby intended to be revoked I give and bequeath all of the lands that I may be seized and possessed, unto my sons James Lima and Peter Lima, in equal portions share and share alike - Subject however to the debts and encumbrances mentioned in said items, and in the division thereof, to the directions then made for an equal apportionment of the same.

Second. My will and desire is that the heirs of my son John C. Lima, now dead inherit equally all that portion of my personal property, to which my said

344
John C. would have been entitled to under the provisions of the fifth item of said will had he been living and I hereby bequeath and devise the same to theirs.

persons who are interested. Commissioners appointed by the County Court where situated. It shall be to Robert, David Lot & divided and the heir or heirs who give the most valuable lots pay back to the others so as to equalize all of them. I further direct that if Maria McAdams her husband George or either or any of their children should introduce or hold contentions for any of the aforesaid property so as to interrupt the provisions of this will I direct that they shall be excluded from the above provisions or the enjoyment of any part of my estate whatever and the provisions contained above as applicable to the rest of my heirs including them but if they remain satisfied with this will then they are to be considered unprejudiced in these provisions in common with the rest of my heirs. I further state that I clear from the provisions of this my will any persons claiming to be the representatives of my daughter intended with as the and all her children are dead

= sessed of — to be hers, and for ^{her} maintenance during her natural life, except that portion represented by the annexed plat marked "lot No 2, being after devised to my daughter Sarah and her husband Levi Haskins which lands is fully represented by the following plat of my lands

I also bequeath unto my said wife, her bed, bedstead, and furniture - one horse team
 - one cow - one barshar - shovel and bull
 - tongue ploughs - one complete set of plough harness ready for use - one falling axe - also all our shipboard and kitchen furniture that she may choose to retain, to be used by her during her natural life. I also direct desire that she have the use of my furniture
 - fan and stands, together with my wagon and oxen during her life as above stated and as many of my stock of Hogs as she may think proper to keep.

My lands I have caused to be divided into lots as represented on the foregoing plat and devise them as follows.

Firstly - That part thereof represented as lot No. 1, containing seventy six acres and forty five poles, bounded thus. "Beginning "at a stake on the bank of the Snow branch "running thence South 84° West sixty six poles "to a rock - then North $87\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ West eighteen "poles to a stake - then South $78\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ West twenty "three poles to two pines - then South "about seven poles to a stake - then North " $88\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ West thirty five poles to a stake then South nine poles to a stake in the "Tomlinsons line, thence South $88\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ East "with her line about thirty six poles to a Buck "stump - then South thirteen poles to a stake "then South $88\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ East about one hundred "and twelve poles to a white oak stump near the "Snow branch - thence Northwardly and with "the channel of said branch to the beginning".

 I give and bequeath unto my son Calvin Hobbs to be his and his heirs forever, after that his mothers life estate therein as specified above - shall have terminated but not before.

Fourthly - I give and bequeath unto my son Green Hobbs the lot represented as No. 2, containing about seventeen acres and twenty seven poles "Beginning at a stake on the bank of the Snow branch corner of No. 1, as above, running thence with said lot South 84° West sixty six poles to a rock - then North $87\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ West eighteen poles to a stake - then North thirty six poles to a small Box Elder in A. D.
 Glens line - thence with said Glens line down the channel of a small branch to his South East corner - thence North three poles

 Corner - thence with his line down the channel
 - out of the Snow branch to the beginning, to be his and his heirs forever, after that his moth-ers life Estate therein shall have terminated, but not before.

Fifthly - I give and bequeath unto my son
 - Green Hobbs and his heirs forever the portion of my land as above by Lot No 3. containing by estimation Sixteen and one fourth acres bounded thus, Beginning at a small Box Elder in S.W. corner of the N.W. corner of lot No 2 running thence with said lot South thirty six poles to a stake - then South 78° West seventy three poles to two paupers - thence South about seven poles to a stake - thence North 88½° West thirty five poles to a stake - thence South ~~thirteen~~ poles to Mrs Tomlinsons line - thence North 88½° West with her line about four poles to the South East corner of lot No 4 as laid on the plat - thence North with line thereof six poles to a stake with a dogwood pointer then North 37° West twelve poles to a stake or rock - then North thirty poles to a stake with a small Walnut pointer in S.W. corner of lot No 4 - thence South 88½° East with said line to where it intersects the ^{small} ~~lower~~ branch that runs between and divides my lands and of A. Adams - thence down said branch as it runs to the place of beginning to be their and their heirs forever, after that my wife's life estate therein as above shall have terminated - but not before. This lot I originally intended for my son Alfred Hobby - but in consequence of a consideration paid by the said Levi Hawkins and his wife to the said Alfred Hobby. I now devised it to them instead of him. I also give and bequeath unto my said daughter Sarah Hawkins and her husband
