place said sum of Two hundred dollars out at interest until said Charles Hawkins attains the age of Twenty-one years then it is my will and I so direct that my Executor pay to the said Charles Hawkins the said Two hundred dollars with all accrued interest thereon.

To my beloved husband, Irwin Hawkins I give and bequeath the sum of Eight hundred ($800) dollars.

Should there be less than $1200 paid to me out of the said Joseph Woods' Estate then it is my will that said sum be paid to the above named persons in the same ratio as named for the $1200 and in the same manner, or if there should be more than $1200 paid out of said estate for me then it is my will that the same be divided in the same manner and ratio to above named devisees as said $1200 is devised to them.

It is my will that if my sons Ovid and Charles Hawkins shall already each have attained the age of twenty-one years at the time of my death, that the amounts above devised to them be paid into their hands as soon as collected by my Executor.

I hereby appoint my beloved husband Irwin Hawkins as Executor of this my last will and testament, and I direct that as soon as he gives bond and otherwise qualifies as such Executor that he proceed to collect said money from said Joseph Woods Estate and pay out the same or dispose of it as directed by this will, and to carry out the provisions of this will fully and completely.
