To the Worshipful Court of sessions for the County of Albany now in session Your petitioners humbly sheweth that they labour under a grievance in consequence of the publick roads remaining in their hands which grievance may be remedied without doing injustice to the publick or in doing it to leave the old road and make a new one. Spring is an charming day but about you see that there is a great deal of the old road the worst and best way, making the whole of the way in the ground of your petitioners further your petitioners agree to cut out the said road and lay it then on a new one in hopes that your Honors will grant the above request your petitioners are praying &c

(Signed) M.D. Harper James Stockard

We the undersigned do certify that we are in agreement with the ground that is stated in the within petition for the new road to run on & that it is a good & better ground with the old one and very little if any further

(Signed) John H. Atkinson Robert G. Thompson George Johnston

Ordered by the Court that the above petition be granted.

To the Honorable Court of Common Pleas, the Petition of Robert Smith Sheweth That the public use & leading from Columbia to Blakes that part of it which runs or leads immediately by the plantation of your petitioner may be so soon disbeginning at the corner of the field which your petitioner purchased of John Thompson & leaving the old road to the left & intersecting again there with a Richard Edwards with a more direct course, something nearer, and equally as good, or better, and said road so contemplated to be turned would much contribute to the private convenience of your petitioner, who has already at his own trouble & expense directed out the new way under contemplation, as will make the said turning no way burden some on the hands subject to keep said road in repair. Your petitioner therefore prays that a jury of view may be appointed to examine the said premises, and make report to this Court of your petitioner as in duty bound he

R. Smith

As the Petitioner being in the neighborhood of the above petitioner
