In obedience to an order of the worshipped Court of peers and quarter sessions for the County of Maury we the undersigned did on the 9th day of March 1819 proceed to examine and determine the way in which the road leading from Columbia over the land of Horatio Depriest and Perry Cott-man <sup>has</sup> ~~has~~ report that for the present and until by an order of the Court a bridge is built over the Branch running between Town and Said Land at a point due east from the Courthouse (the road ought to run on the line between Said Depriest and Joseph C. Howard) Beginning at the corner of the margin of the Town near where the road now crosses the Said Branch and running east on Said line to a point within five poles of the corner on the top of the hill then north <sup>degrees</sup> east until it intersects the line between said Depriest and M. Howard thence on Said line to the Southeast corner of Depriest's land thence nearly with the old road until it intersects the present road on the west of Perry Cottman improvement

State of Franklin & Wayne County. In pursuance to an Order of the worshipful Court of Franklin at their last last time to be directed to view mark and lay out a road leading from Jonathan Webster to the Mather road at or near John Middleton we have this day proceeded to and done it in the following manner Beginning at Jonathan Webster and running with Joseph Hart's north boundary line passing through between Park and Graybony to Graybony saddle shop then turning north to enter the road leading from Webster to Alexander Bathing at or near a blazed dugout then following said road to Alexander Bathing thus following the road usually travelled from there to John Shipp's farm thence to Thomas Hendricks thence following some blazed trees through the woods so as to intersect the road near John Middleton's farm from thence with the road which wagons generally run intersecting the old Bathing road between M. G. Turck and John Middleton for thence with S<sup>r</sup> road as it now runs to said Middleton which way we believe to be the nearest and best between the two places.

and we further recommend Thomas B. McLeod as overseer of that part of the road between Webster and Bathing Creek with the following hands one half of Joseph Hart Jonathan Webster and John Hart hands together with all in the following bounds Beginning at the fork of Big Egg between Webber and Webster down said creek to Duck River down Duck to Bathing Creek up S<sup>r</sup> Creek to Alexander Bathing thence with the road lately laid out to Jonathan Webster thence to the Beginning.

We also recommend Griffiths Bathing as overseer of that part of the road between Bathing Creek and John Middleton for with the hands in the following bounds Beginning at S<sup>r</sup> Bathing Erg. down Ordered that the above road be made and that the overseer be appointed as recommended.

To the worshipful Court of Franklin County now existing upon petitioners humbly sheweth that the County Road on Globe Creek leading to Hartsville by the way of Alexander Gillespies that it is expedient to change the former road so as to leave the old road at Stephen Ross's house by Squire Steddy Mill thence by Brooks ton Hill Dimock, house by Samuel Moore, thence communicating with the old Road in a few hundred yards, the distance being ~~two~~ miles by making it a nearer and better way to avoid the waters of Globe Creek which is dam'd up by Squire Steddy mill dam and makes it almost impassable which new road is now cut out as the law directs and that the overseer of this old road be ordered to keep this new part in repair and relinquish that part of the old road between Stephen Ross's house and the old one.
